

it became subject to the Kings of

TOURIST TICKETS ABOLISHED.

It came under the sway of the Empire, and the period of its industrial prosperity seems to have been A.D. 1204 and 1461 when influence of Turkish rule made rent as the result of conquest.

is situated some one hundred miles north of Erzerum with which communication by road is anything but

The industries of Trebizond seem to be very important, but the surrounding country are considerably varied, while the port is a big centre, and in pre-war times had communication with Constantinople, and other important European cities. Evidently, then, the occupation of the chief seaport of the Black Sea is an event of more interest or significance, and less, have a very important bearing on the operations of the Russians in this and little known region to the world.

BRENT COMMENT.

-General's Report.

and deaths registered in the Dublin Area and in the eighteen principal Urban Districts of Ireland, with the per 1,000 of the population respectively, which, for the purposes of these estimates at 1,148,468, are given in the Registrar-General's Report. Recorded in the Dublin Registration Area week ending Saturday, 15th April, an annual rate of 28·2 per 1,000; Cork, 17·0; London, 13·5; Limerick, 13·5; Waterford, deaths from all causes appertaining to the mentioned areas for last week and four weeks, respectively, were the following annual rates per population:—Nineteen Town District, 23·3; Dublin Registration Area, 3; Dublin City, 23·3 and 28·3; and 20·8; Cork, 21·8 and 26·0; 22·8 and 21·2; Limerick, 16·2 and

The Press Association was informed last night by the Secretary of the Railway Executive Committee that it has been decided to abolish the issue of tourist tickets as from May 1st.

TARBERT PARISH.

At a meeting of the Board of Nomination held at the Diocesan Offices, Tralee, on Tuesday, the Bishop of Limerick and Ardfert presiding, the Rev G C Phair, B.D., Incumbent of Ballyheigue, was unanimously elected to the Incumbency of Kilnaughtin (Tarbert) Parish, vacant by the resignation of the Dean of Ardfert, the Very Rev R Beatty, M.A.

DEATH OF REV. J. M. MAGNER, C.S.S.R.

The news has reached the city of the death in the Philippines of the Rev J M Magner, C.S.S.R. The deceased clergyman was a native of Fernoy, and received the greater part of his education at Mount St Alphonsus, Limerick. Some four years ago he volunteered for the mission in the Philippines where, like many another Irish clergyman, he died in the discharge of the duties of his sacred office.

DEATH OF MR H DALY.

We regret to announce the death of Mr Henry Daly which took place at his residence, Bedford Row, last evening. The deceased, who was in his fifty-fourth year, had been ailing for a considerable period, and his demise, which was not unexpected, has come as a severe blow to his widow and family and a large circle of friends. He carried on business of a high-class hairdresser in the city for more than twenty years, and enjoyed a wide measure of popularity. The remains will be removed to St Michael's R.C. Church this evening at 8.30 o'clock, and the funeral will take place at 2.30 to-morrow for Mount St Lawrence Cemetery.

THE HON J. J. NUNAN, K.C.

Distinguished Limerick Man.

An exchange to hand gives a graphic account of the visit of ex-President Roosevelt and Mrs Roosevelt to British Guiana, and the reception accorded the distinguished visitors on their arrival at the capital, Demerara. Amongst those who received the ex-President of the United States and his consort was the Hon J. J. Nunan, K.C., Attorney-General of the Colony, and our brilliant fellow-citizen, and eldest son of Mrs Nunan-Kennedy. On disembarking from the ship Colonel and Mrs Roosevelt were received by Mr Chamberlain, American Consul, and motored to the Park Hotel, where Mr Nunan, amongst others, had the honour of dining with the distinguished guests, and accompanied them on a trip on the river on the steamer "Haimara", placed at their disposal by the Governor of the Colony.

days' more deliberation—(a Captain Aniery—Two "Order.")

Mr Asquith—That I shall the motion on the paper, rising to-day do adjourn to Sir Edward Carson—I am while I very much regret occurred in making a statement question of recruiting, I suggest that time should no further counsels to see what not be come to. So far as regrettable as the delay may risen to ask the Prime Minister to assume that the motion which will stand in the same relation it did before. I should be resolution without knowing what Government was. It might pression as to the war views of many members of the House to-morrow or any day anterior. Therefore, so far as I not in any wise make any criticism taken by the Prime Minister satisfied if my position is that in.

Mr Asquith nodded assent.

In the House of Lords,

The Marquis of Crewe re-statement made by Mr Asquith Commons, and appealed in the Lord Milner to postpone the debate for compulsory service.

Lord Milner intimated that continue the debate. He did matter would prejudice the Go-

LORD LANSDOWNE'S

Lord Lansdowne, in the court, declared frankly that the as much disappointed as was his followers at the turn of events to come to agreement had passed of the Cabinet in a "mortify there was reason to fear that, some to agreement, the Government. That would be, as the P declared, a national disaster. merely members of the Cabinet this country, but our Allies and would give encouragement to Ultimately Lord Milner composed of the debate.

COTTAGE RENTS IN

The Killaloe District Council meeting discussed the question of cottage rents on the motion of pointed out during the consideration, that no one was more badly off present times than the labourer anything, smaller than two years cost of provisions and other advanced by from 50 to 100 per cent. In seconding the motion, Mr. Hegarty said it was only just and reasonable that the labourers should endeavour to relieve themselves. After a general discussion, it was unanimously agreed to reduce the Local Government Board,