

of Local Government Board.

Government Board have written City Technical Education Committee case of Mr N A Brophy, late Head of the Technical Institute, an appeal against the decision of the King's Bench recently granted him a pension of £7 a majority of the court. The Cor- poration Technical Education Committee were in the case, and although willing to grant Brophy his pension, the Local Government Board objected, and threatened to surcharge Brophy the cheque for the allowance. The case was taken to the King's Bench decided in favour of the plaintiff. Government Board now suggest that appeal should be taken to the Court of Appeal, and offered themselves ready to indemnify Brophy should they be beaten in the case. The case will come before a special meeting of the Local Government Board this evening.
