

REV. C. E. FRY.

The many friends of Rev. Chas. E. Fry, Rector of Ballybunion, will be very sorry to learn that he has been compelled by ill-health to resign his position and seek for a retiring allowance. Mr Fry has been for over 30 years Rector of Ballybunion, and for several years past has held the position of Secretary to the Diocesan Committee of Missions. During his time at Ballybunion he has on several occasions saved the lives of persons who were drowning, at the imminent risk of his own life.

CLERICAL MEETING.

The Bishop's Annual Clerical Meeting will (D.V.) be held at Graham's Hotel, Killarney, on Friday, the 30th of June. The Bishop has issued a letter to all the clergy of the diocese inviting them to confer with him on this occasion on the subject of the proposed National Mission.

REV. J. D. FORDE.

The Rev. J. D. Forde, Incumbent of Cullen, Diocese of Emly, is about to resign the Incumbency of that parish owing to ill-health.

A very pleasant half-holiday may be enjoyed at the annual sports of the Limerick Battalion Church Lads' Brigade on Thursday next, 29th inst, at Belfield, Ennis Road. In addition to the usual races there will be a tug of war and bicycle races, etc. The splendid band of the Leinster Regiment, including the Pipers, will perform a choice selection of music. The Battalion will be inspected in review order by Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Anthony A Weldon, Bart, D.S.O, and the prizes will be distributed by the Hon Susan Butler Massey. It is to be hoped the Clerk of the Weather will be in his best form.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS CENTENARY CONCERT.

A grand Centenary Concert in aid of the Limerick Christian Brothers Schools will, as may be seen by advertisement, be held at the Athenaeum Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday next, June 28th and 29th. A great attraction will be Mr Joseph O'Mara, who has kindly offered his services in behalf of so worthy a cause, one that, we feel assured will bring crowded houses. A host of local talent will take part in a particularly brilliant programme, which will include scenes, in costume, from "Maritana." Mr Paul Bernard, I.S.M., will conduct. The booking is at Messrs McCarthy's.

DEATH OF MR Z. P. LEDGER.

We regret to announce the death of Mr Zacharia P Ledger, eldest son of the late Mr Z J Ledger, 27 George street, which took place last night at his residence, Curraghower, after a short illness. Deceased was of a very courteous and kindly disposition, and his premature demise will be heard of with regret by many friends. He was a Churchwarden of St Michael's Church and a Freeman of the City of Limerick. The funeral takes place from North Strand at 9.30 on Monday morning, and after service at St. Michael's at ten, leaves for the family burial place at Mungret.

OLD AGE PENSION ACT.

Prosecution At Foynes.

At the Foynes Petty Sessions on Thursday, Mrs Annie Naughton, Deelish, Shanagolden, was charged under Section 9 (1) of the Old Age Pension Act, 1908, with making a false statement with a view to obtaining an old age pension.

Mr J S Gaffney, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted on behalf of the Customs and Excise Authorities; and Mr H O B Moran, solr, defended.

Mr J Matthew O'Dwyer, Pension Officer, and Mr O'Keefe Lynch, of the Munster and Leinster Bank, Rathkeale, were examined by Mr Gaffney.

Mr O'Dwyer deposed to defendant making a statement to him that neither she nor her husband had any money in bank, and Mr O'Keefe Lynch stated there was a deposit receipt in the Munster and Leinster Bank for £200 in the joint names of the defendant (Mrs Annie Naughton) and her husband.

Both witnesses were closely cross-examined by Moran on behalf of the defendant.

The Court after deliberation for some time convicted the accused, and fined her 10s and 5s expenses.
