

rd Carson asked was it not a fact that ber of Commerce and every mercantile in Ireland, regardless of politics, had is Bill.

He was most anxious to proceed with course, at this period of the session, in opposition, it would be hardly possible rd Carson—Will that apply to all the Healy—Could not Mr Redmond be got reat authority?

asked was it not a fact that the Cor-Limerick and other bodies had passed against the Bill.

Healy said the Reconstruction Bill itionary proposal, and would require ssion.

ESTERDAY'S HOLIDAY

was practically observed as a holiday Most of the large business houses, as well as the offices (except the the public were enabled to spend a ay in the country or elsewhere. There eadless to say, many "week-enders" Yesterday's train excursions were, onfined to a special for Cork Park . Big contingent travelled to the city . In the afternoon the SS Shannon rge number on a trip to Kildysart The refreshing breeze from the river vigoating, and the visitors had close ous to enjoy the picturesque scenery Kildysart with its fine view of the non.

ER EXECUTIVE POWERS.

on "Daily Express" understands that to be made in the position of the he effect of these will be to confer on of the office much greater Executive belonged to it prior to the rebellion at

NEW CHIEF SECRETARY.

will probably take his seat in the mmons this afternoon, and proceed to the night mail, says the "Daily gn A Pollard, D.L, Castlepollard, was his bicycle on Sunday evening and was 58.

town (Co Dublin) gentleman, Mr Riggs, who was on a brief visit to Lahinch, at once divested himself of part of his clothing and plunged into the sea. He reached Wilders, after the latter had gone down, and succeeded in catching him, and was making for the strand with him, when Constable O'Leary, of the local force, came to their aid. Between them Wilders, who was in a very exhausted condition, with the aid of restoratives, was quickly recovered. Mrs Wilders was a terrified spectator of her husband's perilous position. But for Mr Riggs' plucky and prompt action the young man would undoubtedly have been lost, and it is to be hoped that the Royal Humane Society will take cognizance of his plucky act, and also of the timely help given by Constable O'Leary.

RESCUE FROM DROWNING AT GLIN.

Our Glin correspondent writes:—While a number of Industrial School boys were bathing on the foreshore of the Shannon at the back of the Glin Pier on Sunday afternoon, one of them, named John Toomey, aged 11, got beyond his depth, and being unable to swim, was in peril of drowning. Several of his comrades swam to rescue him, but were unable to bring him to safety. Luckily Rev Brother O'Connor, who had been bathing, was attracted by the commotion. He again entered the water and swam out and saved the boy, who had become much exhausted from his struggles. The Rev gentleman is to be highly commended on his brave act

DEATH OF A LIMERICK MAN IN MINNESOTA

The death took place recently in Minnesota, U.S.A, of Mr John Hilliard, second son of Mr W Hilliard, Main street, Cappamore, County Limerick, and brother to Mr W F Hilliard, who was for some time engaged on the teaching staff of the Clonmel High School. The deceased, a very popular member of a highly respected County Limerick family, emigrated to America about ten years ago, and held a very important commercial appointment in the land of his adoption. He had only attained his 34th year, and the sad intelligence of his premature demise was heard of with feelings of deep regret in his native district, and, indeed, throughout the county Limerick.

TIPPERARY SHOW.

There are 243 classes for this year's Tipperary Agricultural Show, which will be held on the 22nd and 23rd August, this being in excess of the number for any of the previous years, which never went over 207 and 210. The additional classes are accounted for by the fact that this year there will be a Championship Dog Show, in connection with which there are 13 Kennel Club challenge certificates for special breeds. The other classes are maintained in all their previous strength.

rails, and the train proceeded quarter to three o'clock.

HANDBALL

On Sunday, before a large gate Court, Rutland street, Moran, Dublin, and C Meenegha a cup match, the winner to be the first three games out of a p aces each. Lovers of handball with much interest to the match, evenly trained and the issue in play, and up to the last game c war, the players scored two each in the third game that the Lin out the winner by putting the credit as against two scored by presentative.

DESPATCH RIDER'S

Despatch Rider Corporal Don to-day at Yarmouth from injur with a motor car yesterday.

LIMERICK STOCK

To-Day's Prices

GOVERNMENT STOCKS.

Consols .....

BANKS.

Bank of Ireland .....

National .....

Munster and Leinster .....

Hibernians .....

Provincial .....

Ulster .....

RAILWAYS.

Great Southern Ord .....

Great Northern .....

London & North Wes .....

Canadian Pacific .....

SOUTH AFRICANS.

Chartered .....

Goldfields .....

Johnnies .....

MISCELLANEOUS.

Guinness Ord .....

Coats Ord .....

India 3 1/2 Stock .....

Marconi Ord .....

Marconi Pref .....

Marconi American .....

Dunlop Ords .....

„ Deferred .....

Cannocks .....

Matterson Prefs .....

Mid Great Western Cons .....

AMERICANS.

Atchinsons .....

Erie .....

Louisville .....

Missouri .....

outhern Pacific .....

Unions .....