a friend advised me to flush out my kidneys by drinking twice daily a tumbler of water, containing a teaspoonful of ordinary refined alkia saltrates.
After following this advice for two days my lumbago and sciatic pains had entirely vanished, my swollen joints were less painful and greatly reduced, and I felt better than in several years.
I continued the treatment two weeks longer, and in more than three months that have passed since then not a trace of rheumatism has returned, even my formerly gouty foot being now in perfectly normal condition. This remarkable compound, which, as pure alkia saltrates can be procured from any chemist, consists of the refined deposits of certain natural curative medicinal springs, as I have learned since by having a sample analysed. It is not at all expensive, and only about six ounces will be required. In its pure, refined state it is practically tasteless to drink, yet as a uric acid solvent and eliminant its powers are astonishing, almost beyond belief —

DEATH OF MISS MARTHA BOURKE.

At 2 Augustinian Place the death of Miss Martha Bourke, daughter of the late Mr Thomas Bourke, an old and respected member of the Typographical Association, took place early on Sunday morning last to the very great grief of her brothers and sisters, and her relations generally. The deceased was very talented in many ways, and her musical abilities caused her to be much sought after. She was a very popular member of St Ica's House. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon from St Mary's Parish Church, whither the remains had been removed on Sunday evening, and interment took place at Mount St Lawrence Cemetery, the very large and representative gathering of mourners present showing the popularity and respect in which deceased and her family are held in the city.

The clergy present were—Rev Father Shanahan, P.P., St Mary's; Rev Father O'Gorman, C.C., do; Rev Father O'Carroll, C.C., do; and Rev Father Fredolin, O.F.M.

The chief mourners were—Messrs Stephen and E Bourke (brothers); Mrs Mulqueen, Mrs Fitzgerald, Misses Christina and Bridget Bourke (sisters); Mrs E J Bourke (sister-in-law); Mr Wm Fitzgerald (brother-in-law); Miss Mary B Mul-queen (niece); John, William, Stephen, and May Fitzgerald (nephews and niece).

A number of beautiful wreaths were placed on the grave. The family of the deceased have been the recipients of many messages of condolence, for which they wish to return sincere thanks, and hope the kind friends who so thoughtfully sent them will accept this acknowledgment.
