

the late Mr F O'Neill, his promotion from the National Bank there to the Kilmore branch.

Court Circular says—had the honour of being with Their Excellencies the Lord and Lady Oranmore and the Lodge. The Marquis of the Lodge.

and, after only two days' absence, Healy, Thornhill, Bird, and Co was a most esteemed member of the Council.

that there should be no island if the resources of the developed and means used into sugar. Ireland, he is considered in tillage of Killarney.

KA COMPANY.

Company had a magnificent performance at the Royal last night, when the company's engagement of grand popular and delightful play. A large and appreciative audience met our distinguished fellow townsman, Mr Joseph O'Mara, by a highly-talented and interesting. At their hands the treatment, both historical and musical standpoint. On making O'Mara received quite an ovation. It is now two years since he appeared in Limerick, and he has played to numerous audiences of success. Everywhere he has been given a very warm reception. His Irish tour should set an example of approval in the splendid and encouraged the works of tone.

of Killarney" the company has performed, and last night that was extended by the company that greeted their portrayal of "Myles na Coppleen" Mr O'Mara's superb. He gave a highly interesting rendition of the part, and his old-time sweetness and charm. He was the recipient of a ovation in the solos "There is a" and was equally effective in "Miss Florence Morden" graceful "Billy O'Codnor." at fault, and her singing of a my wild mountain valley singing. As "Danny Man," very fine impression. He clearness and fullness and in the famous Moon duet Dempsey, who portrayed ensure and maintain universal peace.

Interpreting the terms which would satisfy the belligerents, he said they implied that an immediate peace must be a peace without victory.

The United States, he said, would have no voice in determining the terms of peace; but on the wider issue, of founding an enduring and a world-wide peace, they were entitled to say that the conditions must be such as would harmonise with their ideals and convictions.

Enemy Held in Rumania.

The official reports from Rumania to-day show how completely the enemy has been held. Beyond some fighting on the Oituz, where the enemy made unavailing attempts to advance, there was comparatively little doing.

British Bomb Bagdad.

British airmen have raided Bagdad citadel, dropping six 100lb bombs in and around the Turkish munition factory there.

Brave Munster Man.

Military Medal for Fallen Soldier.

Mrs Ellen Hayes, Boherbuoy, Rathkeale, has received the Military Medal awarded her late son, Private J Hayes, 2nd Royal Munster Fusiliers, for bravery in the field. Private Hayes served for a year and eight months in France as stretcher bearer. He was wounded August 7th, 1916, and died six days later to the great regret of his comrades of all ranks, and numerous friends in Rathkeale.

Young Cahir Officer Killed.

The death in action of Second-Lieutenant William C Robinson, 80th Punjaubis, occurred on the 7th inst, during an engagement in East Africa. When the sad intelligence became known very sincere sorrow was occasioned throughout Cahir and district. The deceased, who was only 19 years of age, was third son of Mr T Robinson, Killecomon, Cahir.

Limerick Soldier Killed.

The casualty lists include T Carroll (Limerick) R.M.F, recently killed in action. Deceased, whose parents reside in Island Road, was twelve months at the front, and had been through the Battle of the Somme, where he escaped without injury. He was a promising gallant young soldier, and the sympathy of many friends is extended to his relatives in their loss.

Soldier Missing.

Corporal E J Widdess, eldest son of Lieutenant J G and Mrs Widdess, of 3 Cumberland Terrace, Finsbury Park, has been reported missing. He was formerly a scholar at Hornsey County School, and was attached to Holy Trinity Church, Stroud Green, for several years.

Sergeants-at-Arms, entered the O received with applause.

The Mayor, on taking his seat, commenced the proceedings, he thing would pass off very quietly, on the public the necessity of keep

The Assistant Town Clerk read Mr W M Nolan, J.P., Town Clerk stated that he was still confined from the effects of a chill contracted. He regretted being absent from it was pleased to learn that the Council the present Mayor a second year which he had, indeed, proved his way so worthy, and he offered his congratulations beforehand. He looked pleasure to co-operating with the Council in bringing to a success different projects for the good of would arise during the ensuing year (Applause.)

The Mayor called upon Mr Kill roll, when the following answered: John O'Brien, P Dillon, M J McNeice, T Prendergast, P O'D McDonnell, J.P, and P McDonogh, M J McDonnell, P F McNamara, Lynch, T Donnellan, T S Lawler, J Hassett, D Griffin, J McInern (Mayor), P O'Flynn, T Duggan, O'Brien, R P O'Connor, C Johnson, Gleeson, J Downey, J Dalton, Griffin, R Frost, O Ryan, L O' O'Mara, P Walsh, M J Henihan,

The Mayor said according to a High Court, being a candidate for he could not preside at the meeting the Council to elect a Chairman pro

The Mayor vacated the chair, in of Mr O'Donnell, seconded by Mr D McNeice presided.

The Assistant Town Clerk said on the agenda was to elect a Mayor Worship into office, and fix the

The Chairman—I will now receive for the Mayoralty for the ensuing

Mr Duggan said last year it was propose Mr Quin for the Mayor personal pleasure was again his Mayor for the year 1917, at a salary was not his intention to take up Council by elaborating on his qualifications for the office, that he discharged the onerous marked ability and tact (hear, hear) sense Mr Quin was Mayor of the party, but of the community at the history of the municipality well discharged as they were last such trying and very difficult. There was no necessity to dilate ties, but one thing was obvious his conduct as chief magistrate approved by the citizens for preserved the peace of the city (ap only for the manner he did it second year of office. During the Mayoral Chair he had added the chain of honesty and respect which he had won from the Council for him the highest respect. He be intallible, and perhaps did it with everyone, but his one ambition Limerick a centre of industry