

their neighbour, in visiting the poor in their own homes, in comforting them in their sorrows, advising them in their difficulties, making them realise their duties towards God, and in relieving their material wants. In this way they were doing good work for their neighbour and doing better work for themselves. They should realise that those to whom they were bringing alms were just as good as they were, that the only essential difference was God's grace in their hearts, and that there was many a poor person whose shoes they were not worthy to tie. Many of their poorer brethren who had received some education and who pondered over the manner in which the good things of this world were distributed tended to become socialists or even anarchists and it was sometimes hard to blame them. There was only one way to banish such ideas and that was to show them what the charity of the Gospel could do.

At the conclusion of his Lordship's address a number of new members were introduced by the Presidents of the different conferences.

DEATH OF A LIMERICK MAN IN TRALEE.

The death of ex-Colour-Sergeant P Wallace, Royal Munster Fusiliers, in Tralee Military Hospital on the 10th inst, evoked deep feelings of sincere regret not only amongst his relatives and friends in this city, but also amongst his comrades in the Munsters and a large circle of friends in Tralee. The late "Paddy" Wallace, as he was familiarly called, was orderly-room sergeant at the Strand Barracks for a number of years, and left the Service on pension in August, 1908, and since then held the responsible position of Clerk in Charge of Records and Recruiting in Tralee Depot, the duties of which he carried out with ability and satisfaction to his superior officers. The deceased was of a genial and kind-hearted nature, and was a great favourite with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by the Depot Staff R.M.F., and the cortege which followed the remains from St. John's R.C. Church, where they rested the two previous nights was very large and representative. The firing party of 24 men were furnished by the Scots Highlanders. The chief mourners were—Everard and Daniel Wallace (brothers), Mrs. Kate Sheehan (sister), Daniel Doyle (cousin), and Dyson O'Brien, Limerick; after whom marched Colonel Chute, Commanding the Depot, and officers, warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the R.M.F. Immediately following was a large number of civilian friends. When the cemetery, Ballymullen, was reached, prayers for the dead were recited, after which three volleys were fired. The Last Post was sounded which notified that the remains of a faithful soldier, a warm-hearted and upright citizen were laid to rest. Colonel and Mrs. Chute sent a splendid floral wreath. The following also sent wreaths—"From Brothers and Sisters with deep regret," "3rd, 4th, and 5th Batt Royal Munster Fusiliers with deep feelings of regret," "From officers, warrant and non-commissioned officers and men Depot Staff R.M.F. with deep affection."

WORKHOUSE RATIONS.

At the meeting of the C...

LICENSED AND OT
as proposed in the recent
the Prime M

The MAYOR W

£20
TO
£5,000
LOANS
GRANTED
BY POST.

M
WIFE
Ladies
have th
discount
cheques securities
view.
Clergy
Medical Shopkee
sible Per
No fee
Charges
Railway
Borrowers dealing wi
have their Loans pe
and those who are ab
write for full inform

THE STANDARD PRIVA
OF IRELAND, LTD., JA
Sec. 15 ANGLESEA ST

TO-DAY'S MA

BUTTER—1s 10d to 2s 0d p
EGGS—Hen eggs, 1s 10d t
tuck eggs, 1s 10d to 2s 0d p
FISH—Plaice, 1s 10d per 1
doz; whiting, 10d per lb;
haddock, 10d; lemon sole,
scarce; salmon, 2s 8d per lb.
MEAT—Hind quarters of m
fore quarters of mutton, 1s beef, 1s 6d per lb; steak and boiling beef, 1s 2d to 1s 4d p
1s 2d per lb; soup beef, 6d p
BREADSTUFFS.—Retail Wa
per sack; Bakers' War Flour,
Wholemeal 62s 0d per sack
0d per sack; Oaten Flake Me
Flake Bran, £18 10s per ton;
per ton; Red Bran, nor £16 10s per ton; India
£18 4s per ton; Do. (fine),
Extra Fine, £19 10s; Barley

PIGS.

The following are to-day's Pigs (1 cwt. 1 qr. 0 lb. to 1 122s per cwt; Stout (1 cwt 2
3 qrs.), 122s per cwt; Overw
1 lb. to 1 cwt. 3 qr. 14 lb
Heavy Overweight (over 1 c 116s per cwt; Do. (over 2 cwt.
Unfinished, special price;
-tone), 110s per cwt; "Si
under 10 stone), 118s.

CORK BUTTER M.