

"Vorwarts" is not satisfied with the rial Chancellor's speech in the Reichstag, taining that he does not recognise the usness of the times. It says, the question of nal politics had become the main question, in gn politics: Germany had politically got into favourable position.

E BLOCKADE OF GERMANY.

Paris, Friday.
e Chamber to-day, adopted unanimously, the r of the Day, recognising the blockade of any was completely assured, and counting the Government to take indispensable ures to co-ordinate the efforts of France and llies.

MR JOHN REDMOND.

John Redmond is going on well.

LONDON POTATO SUPPLY

Practically Nil.

potato supply in London is practically Many leading salesmen have no stocks in
It will be another month or five weeks the new potatoes come in, observed one man, and another fortnight at most will see st of the old crop.

A BIG ESTATE.

settled estate of the gross value of over one n pounds has been left by the late Mr is Reckitt, brother of Sir, James Reckitt,

FORTHCOMING BRIDGE TOURNAMENT.

have been requested to announce that a Tournament will be held at Cruise's Hotel ately after Easter. The Tournament is rganised for the purpose of assisting the of the Local Milk Depot, of which Mrs n, South Hill, is President. Entrance fee ng tea has been fixed at the moderate of 5s. The tickets can be had from Mrs artigan, who has kindly consented to act Secretary to the undertaking. Apart ie fact that an enjoyable evening is assured, bers to the tournament, will have the tion of helping a most deserving charity.

LIMERICK QUARTER SESSIONS.

Honor County Court Judge Law-Smith
ed the hearing of the business of the k Quarter Sessions to-day. During the he Court was engaged in the disposal of defended civil bills.

LIMERICK STOCK LIST.

To-Day's Prices.
GOVERNMENT STOCK.

50s	53
BANKS.
Bank of Ireland	185 x d
London	154 x d

... have passed a vote of condolence
with Mr O'Kelly.

FUNERAL OF MASTER JACK WALPOLE.

The funeral of Master Jack Walpole, aged 4 1/2 years, who died at County View Terrace as the result of injuries received in a motor car accident while crossing the road near his residence on Wednesday evening, March 21st, took place to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. The cortege was very large and representative, and bore ample testimony to the deep sympathy expressed in the city with the parents of the little lad, a bright and promising boy, in their sorrow. A large number of wreaths were sent, many of them by companions of the deceased.

The chief mourners were—Mr William Walpole, father (buyer at Messrs Cannock and Co.'s); Mr Edward Cole, grandfather, and Mr William Cole, uncle.

Wreaths were sent by the following—Daddy
and Mammy, Jennie Despard, Raphie and Doris Mulligan, Florrie, Renie, Leonard, and Bobby Despard; Mrs Murphy and James; Ray, Grace, and Rita Hamilton; Granny and Grand-pa,
Auntie Bee and Uncle Willie; Mat and Mrs
O'Rourke; the buyers of J McBirney and Co;
Miss Brown, Miss P O' Sullivan, and L Cahill, Cannock and Co; Mrs Cyril Brown, Angela
Walsh, T. J. McCarthy, John and Paddy O'Sullivan; Kevin and Jack Keena, Gerald and Lily M'Namara, Puggie Griffin, Mrs J Redding, Aunt Marv, Jim and Mick, Mrs Moore, Stafford.

BIRTHS. MARRIAGES. DEATHS

BIRTHS.

HAMILTON—March 29, 1917, the wife of Major Maurice C. Hamilton, Leinster Regiment, of Roundwood, Mountrath, Queen's County, of a son.
WARREN—March 30, 1917, at 49 Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, to Mr and Mrs J.
Warren, 21 Charleville-road, Rathmines, a son.

MARRIAGES.

CROWE and BEWLEY—March 28, 1917, at Grey-stones Parish Church, by the Rev. E. T.
Daunt, M.A., William Crowe, of Wyvern, Terenure, to Alice Muriel, second daughter of the late Thomas Arthur Bewley, St. Helen's, Blackrock, Co. Dublin, and of Mrs Bewley, Seapattick, Greystones.
GREENE and DAY—March 29, 1917, at St. James's Church, Castledermot, by the Rev. H. A. D.
Barbor, M.A., Rector, Thos. W. Greene, Millbrook, to Julia Maud Day, second daughter of the late Thomas Day, Manchester, England.

DEATHS.

BALLANTYNE—March 28, 1917, at Mellifont avenue, Kingstown, Anne Gilchrist, daughter of the late Duncan Ballantyne, of Dublin.
GOODWIN—March 28, 1917, at Dublin, James Goodwin, senior. "For ever with the Lord."
Funeral took place yesterday from Presbyterian Church, Limerick.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mr Christopher Sheehan, 2 Mortell Villas, Limerick, and family, desire to return their grateful thanks to numerous friends who by letter and telegram have sent condolences with them in their recent bereavement, and hope they will accept this acknowledgment of their kindness, as it is impossible to reply individually.

KIDD'S STORES