

Doors open at 7.30 p.m.

LUNCHEON, 1s 6d. TEA, 6d

There will be CONCERTS, conducted by Mr F Muspratt. The children of the Schools will be present and Sing.

Admission—Saturday Afternoon, One Shilling. Children, Sixpence. Monday Evening, Threepence.

Limerick Protestant Orphan Society.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

WILL BE HELD IN

THE DIOCESAN HALL

— ON —

TUESDAY, MAY 1st, at 3.30.

The Chair will be taken by the LORD BISHOP.

COLLECTION IN AID OF THE FUNDS. (s6a28)

TURF FOR SALE.

THE TURF on the Land I hold at Cloughkeating, Patrickswell, is for Sale. For particulars apply to

J. DOWLING,
3 Lower Catherine Street.

National Benefit Trust.

DRAWN BOND NUMBER FOR APRIL
90078.

DIVISIONAL OFFICES,
57 SOUTH MALL, CORK.

LOST.

A Brown Purse containing two Bank of England Five Pound Notes and some silver, between 8 and 10 o'clock last evening. £2 reward on returning same to the Palace, Limerick.

Be Wise in Time.

SHOULD YOUR SIGHT BE DEFECTIVE
CONSULT A. RICHARD,

A Qualified Optician with 25
Years Practical Experience
and Proved Ability.

Modern Appliances used with the Greatest Skill in Sight Testing, and Glasses fitted to the Highest Degree of Accuracy at Moderate Prices.

ESTABLISHED ADDRESS :

A. RICHARD,
QUALIFIED OPTICIAN,
12b Winthrop-street, Cork,

ATTENDS ROYAL GEORGE HOTEL,
LIMERICK, WEDNESDAY, MAY 9th.

(OVER GREENPARK COURSE.)

Thursday and Friday.

MAY 3rd and 4th, 1917.

RECORD ENTRIES RECEIVED.

SPLENDID RACING ASSURED.

BIRTHS. MARRIAGES. DEATHS

BIRTHS.

ELLISON—April 22, 1917, at Castlebar, Co. Mayo, to Dr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison, a son.

HUTCHINSON—April 21, 1917, at 54 Albert-road, Glenageary, Co. Dublin, the wife of S. L. Hutchinson, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

CARROLL and FLYNN—April 22, 1917, at St. Colman's Church, Cloyne, with Nuptial Mass and Blessing, by the Very Rev. Augustine Flynn, C.S.S.R., Athenry, assisted by the Rev. M. O'Callaghan, P.P., Surgeon J. J. Carroll, R.N., eldest son of the late P. J. Carroll, Solicitor, Bahtry, to Madeline, eldest daughter of D. J. Flynn, M.D., St. Patrick's Hill, Cork.

O'SHEA and O'SHEA—April 21, 1917, at Ballydenoghue, by the Very Rev. M. Canon Fuller, P.P., V.F., Timothy, second son of Timothy O'Shea, Loughgurtane, Co. Kerry, to Julia (Gis), third daughter of Roger O'Shea, Tallamore, Listowel.

DEATHS.

FOLEY—April 26, 1917, at his residence, Roxville, Roxboro'-road, Limerick, Louis Foley. Deeply regretted by his sorrowing wife and family. Office and solemn Requiem Mass at St. John's Cathedral on Saturday at 11 o'clock. Funeral immediately afterwards for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. No flowers, by request.

GOODMAN—April 13, 1917, killed in action, Alfred Robert, son of W. Goodman, Derrycarne, Dromod, Co. Leitrim, The Canadians.

MARTYN—April 24, 1917, at 4 Upper Pembroke street, Dublin, Alexander M. Martyn, of Curraghmore, Ballinrobe, aged 70.

WHEELER—On 25th instant, at Landscape, Robert H. Wheeler, Esq., last surviving son of the late Robert Wheeler, of Pallasbeg.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

HANRAHAN—In sad and loving memory of Timothy Hanrahan, who died at his residence, 85 Henry street, April 26th, 1916. R.I.P. Mother of Good Counsel intercede for him. (Inserted by his loving wife and children.)

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mr and the Misses Barrett, Roche's-street, beg to return thanks to their many kind friends for their letters of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement; and as it would be impossible to reply individually, they hope all will accept this acknowledgment.

P. McCARTHY & SONS.

FUNERAL REQUISITES

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

L SPK

Mrs M

GI

NO

WEDN

MI

Small Advertis

Unless Prepaid Above Ad
will be charged at
of 1s 6d per insert

REXALL COLD TABLET
According to directions on box cold in twenty four hours. You returned if they fail. Boxes
Rexall Shop, 118 O'Connell St.

CHILDREN'S OUTFITTING
Knitted Golf Coats, Frocks
and Boys' Jerseys. Inspection
vited.—L F GIBSON, 37 O'Connell
L. F. GIBSON are now at
L. Neckwear Department at Early Spring Novelties.—37 O'Connell

INCREASED FARES need
who travel by motor, and you can still be hired at pre-war rates calls promptly attended to;
careful drivers.—LAWLOR BROS
eers, 22 Catherine Street, Limer

JUST TASTES LIKE CHOCOLATE
a Gentleman when purchased Rexall Castor Oil. He also said their doctor what he thought of doctor replied, "All Rexall prepaclass." The doctor often rec-Syrup of Hypophosphites, at self when he feels run down.—L
Shop.