ATHENÆUM PICTUREDROME.

One of the most sensational cinema pictures produced for a long time is "The Hun's Daughter," which will be shown at the Athenæum Picture-drome on Monday and Tuesday nights. It is an entrancing five-act drama by M. Henri Germain. In Paris and in every city where it was shown it has created a most extraordinary impression, and should not be missed by students of the world-war. For the remaining nights of the week a capital programme is arranged.
