

clear when she observed ned that if they had y could buy anything
should remember that,
ps were full, the reserves ymight easily come when one's pocket, one could flour." We must, therefore, the uttermost to avert
a direful crisis like that,
est be practised in the housewife has an enorod in that direction, and umption she will not alone eat the enemy's nefarious t will save the country natiouing with all its ties. We must, as Miss s, live well within the g or else there must be the
"against which a great aid." There are enough the hands of the Allies next harvest "if," as the ly reasonable economy bey householder." And the ked to, to take the lead, first ve a margin of means by add to their dietary fish, fruity which are beyond the y poor; and, secondly, be-o-do have cooks, and many olds themselves understand Robins incidentally men-communal kitchens of which in Dublin, ought to serve the ching the poor how to prein the most advantageous lowest cost. The reference tions is interesting to Lime-through the thoughtful and of a number of local ladies a Cooked Food Depot is ed on similar lines, and, as ertain to prove a boon and a t to very many people in this usual quota. are informed that it is not expected that any improvement in the situation may be looked for during the next few weeks.

that your son Rederick was kil-inst in an attack of the German H There are few words that I can say in your great sorrow and irrepafeel that I must let you know thi a soldier's death, leading his gallantry and dash, and setting a those around him.

"May I be permitted to share y his Commanding Officer to deplo keen officer, who combined the qua soldier with a lovable and kind Sincerely yours,

"S W FORD, Lt. Col., Duke of Wellington"

The news of Lieut O'Neill's casioned deep regret amongst Limerick, who sincerely sympafather and family in their great sor-

FUNERAL OF MR C. HEATON ARMSTRONG.

Yesterday the remains of the late Mr Charles Richard Beauchamp Heaton Armstrong, Southville, were interred at the family burial place, St Munchin's. Shortly after eleven o'clock the funeral left St Michael's Church, where the remains rested overnight. The cortege was of considerable proportions, being representative of the City and County, and County Clare, and was a striking tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased gentleman, and expressive of the deep sympathy extended to his family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Mrs C R B Heaton-Armstrong (widow); Mrs Milton-Henn (sister); Colonel Milton-Henn (brother-in-law); Mr W A McDonnell, New Hall, Co Clare; Mr R J Staepole, D.L., Edenvale, Ennis (cousins).

The clergy present were—Very Rev Dean Hackett, Rev Canon Waller, Rev Canon Robertson, Rev Canon Swain, Rev Canon Langbridge, Rev R H Semple, Rev A E Hewetson.

Amongst the general public were:—The Mayor (S B Quin, D.L.); E D Hunt, solr; F A Johnston, A Blood-Smyth, solr; G E Farmer, F C Cleeve, D.L.; J F Power, A O'G Lalor, J Dodds, solr; J Quin, J P; A White, J P; G Goodbody, R Coplen-Langford, J P; S Slade, C.E.; J A Place, R Harris, H V Morony, C.E.; Capt J O'G Delmege, D.L.; J P Goodbody, R T Gelston, C.E.; B Barrington, solr; W Hassett, Dr W A Fogerty, Lr F W Kennedy, W R Twigg, C Croker, D.L.; G Gelston, P J Kelly, R M; H A D'Esterre, Rosmanagh; H E W Yates, T H Brett, D W Harnett, M D Shaw, H B Alton, Colonel J Massy-Westropp, W Barrington, C.E.; B Gubbins, H Blackall, solr; E J Christy, H Power, S T Vanittart, J.P.; R F Melville, Dr J Malone, Captain Verschoyle, V J Turner, J Flynn, L V Jennings, T W Harding, J.P.; B K Lucas, R Nash, solr; H J Grey, N Barry, Ennis; M Slade, C.E.; Major Eyre Levers, Ducley Fletcher, C.E.; F W Gore-Hickman, solr, Ennis; James Thomson, J Welphy, E L Wickham, J Johnston, B.A.; L O'B Kelly, B.L.; T Studdert, S F Ebrill, W N Welphy, C.E.

Carriages were sent by—Mrs O'Brien, South Hill; Dr C Blood, Mrs Ros Rose, Mrs Shine, A Murray, N Goodbody, and Capt Verschoyle.

Wreaths were sent from—"His loving wife"; "From his loving sons"; "From George and Alice, in loving memory"; "From Milton, Lizzie and Marjorie, in affectionate memory"; "In affectionate remembrance, from the members of the Junior Club"; "In loving memory, from H A D'Esterre"; "From Mrs Hobson"; "From servants at Southville, Ned and Bridget."

Canon Robertson officiated at the graveside.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs P McCarthy and Sons.

Irishmen Who Took

In a description of the capture of Gibbs, in the "Daily Telegraph," almost by accident that the village so lightly held that it could be captured. After dusk some of our men lost the cemetery and wandered off the ruined streets. There were among them, bold and reckless fighters, very quick to do the right thing corner when, as they say, they

"They searched some dug-outs by good luck, a group of staff officers of the 362nd Regiment and a doctor. They were brought down to our quarters he said, 'Your men have surprised us.'

SHIPPING REPORT

Weekly Report

Less Ships Lost

The Secretary of the Admiralty following weekly return of arrivals, losses, and unsuccessful attacks ending Sunday May 13th, 3 p.m.

Arrivals and sailings of merchantmen of all nationalities over 100 tons net at United Kingdom ports, excluding local craft:—

Arrivals

Sailings

British merchant vessels sunk or damaged or submarines, tons gross or over (including one sunk during the week ended April 29th) ...

Under 1,600 tons gross ...

British merchant vessels sunk or damaged or submarines, fully attacked by submarine (including 3 attacked during week ended April 29th) ...

during week ended May 13th, British fishing vessels sunk ...

The Submarine

The official statement of losses writes the Naval Correspondent continues to show an improvement in the number of ships