ER, YOUR CHILD NEEDS A LAXATIVE.

Child is Coated. Stomach Sick, Child is Cross. Feverish, pated. give "California Syrup of Figs."

ld your frail, peevish, child. See is coated; this is a sure sign that stomach, liver, and bowels are clogged d imperfectly digested food.

When listless, pale, feverish, with tainted breath, a cold or a sore throat; if the child does not sleep, act naturally or has stomach-ache, indigestion, or diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the waste matter, bile and fermented food will pass out of the bowels, and you have a healthy, playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest giving it, because it never fails to little "insides" sweet and wholeandly. Mother! A little given to-day child to-morrow, but get the genuine chemist for a bottle of "California Figs," which has directions for babies, all ages, and for grown-ups plainly. Remember imitations are so many, so look and see that you get the name of the "California Fig Company." All leading chemists sell a Syrup of Figs," is 1s 6d and 1s 9d language on the occasion was irregular. Kelleher woman was not so bad. Bridget Kelleher appeared and promised never to do the same again.

The charge against Martin Kelleher was that he refused to work and left the house without permission, leaving his wife and family after him. Defendant stated he asked his discharge a week before that.

The Master said he would give him his discharge, but his wife and family should leave too. The Chairman, in giving the decision of the Bench, warned Bridget Kelleher to be of good behaviour for the future. Mary Nevin would go to gaol for a month, and Martin Kelleher for a term of fourteen days. They were determined to put a stop to this conduct. If defendants were in the workhouse they must abide by the rules. Other cases were disposed of, and the court adjourned.

KILMALLOCK PETTY SESSIONS.

(Before Messrs T W W Bennett, M.C.C.; J A Hardy, R.M., and T Lynch).

A licensing prosecution was dismissed, the evidence being that those found on the premises had been invited. Mr R Fox defended.

James Fox was fined 5s for working a horse while suffering from sores.

In a sanitary prosecution against John Goodchild evidence was given as to the condition of a piggery, its proximity to house and public pump, and that it was considered a danger to public health. Defendant was asked if he would remove the pig, but he would not give an undertaking. He said he kept the cleanest piggery and yard in Kilmallock. It was other nuisance that polluted the pump. A fine of 40s was imposed.

P Stubbins was bound to the peace on a complaint by P Reilly.

For the larceny of a small quantity of coal from the Railway Company two women were dealt with under the Probation of Offenders Act. Mr J J Power defended.

DEATH OF A CLERICAL STUDENT.

We regret to record the death of Mr Michael D Conway, son of Mr Denis Conway, Skagn, Croom. The deceased who passed away on Monday morning, was intended for the priesthood, and his demise, at the early age of 18 years, has out short a brilliant and promising career. He was a student in St Munchin's College, Limerick, and intended to proceed to Maynooth this year to continue his studies there. During his Easter holidays last year he contracted a cold which never left him and which developed with fatal consequences. Of a gentle, and unassuming disposition he was a general favourite, and the deepest sympathy is felt for his esteemed father and other relatives including his uncle, Mr James Conway, the highly respected Clerk of Croom Board of Guardians and District Council. The funeral which took place from Croom Church yesterday for Anaid Churchyard was very largely attended.
