AUCTION OF

TWO FARMS.

JOHN BROWNE

HAS received instructions from Mr John Ryan, who has purchased a large holding, to sell his interest in his two farms.

On Monday, April 15th

At 12 o'clock (new time)

No 1 Lot.

Residential Holding, containing twenty acres I.P.M., together with one acre of turbary, purchased under the Ashbourne Act, held in fee, subject to an annuity payable to the Irish Land Commission at £3 4s, P.L.V., £5. The residence is a comfortable thatched cottage, with suitable and spacious out-offices, within 7 miles of Limerick, about 1 mile from Castleconnell, 1/2 mile from O'Brien's Bridge, where important fairs are held and convenient to Birdhill Co-operative Creamery. The land is prime, nicely divided, admirably adapted for general husbandry, all under grass except four acres under potatoes, oats, wheat, etc. Attention is directed to this important sale by parties requiring a farm of above dimensions, who would be benefitted by giving this sale their attention. Held at such a very low rent, it is bound to prove a sound investment.

No 2 Lot.

Situate at Summerhill, Birdhill, containing 2 acres 2 roods 28 perches, statute measure, held in fee, subject to an annuity payable to the Irish Land Commission at £9 16s, P.L.V., £17. The farm is situated midway between Birdhill and Killaloe; all under grass of a deep rich quality adjoining public road, and can be utilised for mowing, grazing or tillage.

JOHN BROWNE, Auctioneer BIRDHILL.
