OF MR JOHN STEWART.

to record the death which took place at 12 Lower Hartstonge Street, after the death of Mr John Stewart, for 35 years at the firm of Messrs J and G Boyd, Hartstonge Street. Deceased, who was in his 70th year, was a man of the strictest probity and deserving the fullest confidence of his colleagues. He brought up a large family, and enjoying the goodwill and respect of all those with whom he came in contact. He lived to see them enjoy good positions, and prospering in the world. He was a very old and respected member of the Presbyterian Church, the members of which will learn of his demise with regret. Funeral from the Church, Hartstonge Street, to St Munchin's next Thursday, at 3 o'clock.

reception dance will be held in the hall on the 30th October. The music will be provided by Mr Clarke Barry's Band, and the dancing will be done by Kidd's Stores. Lime and confetti showers will be a feature of the occasion, which is certain to be very successful.

EGGS IN WINTER

Producers often find great difficulty in their supply of eggs throughout the winter months. Fowl are very susceptible and hens that are good layers in the summer often drop off considerably during the winter. In such cases Ovelle Spice is the best remedy. When mixed with the ordinary food it acts as a stimulant, while at the same time it keeps the general health. By using it your hens laying right through the winter. It is excellent too for fowl, warding off liver diseases—the chief cause of which is Ovelle Spice is sold at 6d. 1s, 2s, and 3s. Skak at 1s 3d and 2s. Other 6d extra. Obtainable from—J. & G. Boyd, O'Connell Street, Limerick; or Messrs. Roche's Street, Limerick; or Le Spice Co., Newry. (adv't)
