 Nellie, Alured, and Fred Conyers, Russell-street, Strathfield.

"He fell a hero in the deadly strife.
 For King and Country he laid down his life.
 Fame was achieved and he had done his share to win those laurels, vain and rare,
 Which now adorn Australia's loyal race.
 No even Time its glory can efface."

PIM—October 25, 1918, at Crezat, near Valence, France, Marianne, widow of the late Captain Joseph Robinson Pim.

GIFT SALE

— FOR —

Wounded Irish Soldiers

WILL BE HELD AT

The Agricultural Hall, Limerick

(By permission of Messrs Ebrill, Bros, Auctioneers).

On Wed, 27th November

AT 11 O'CLOCK

A COMMITTEE has been formed for the purpose of promoting a Gift Sale in aid of Wounded Irish Soldiers, the proceeds of which will be largely devoted to Munster men and their dependents.

The Committee confidently appeal to all to help them in making it a success, as they feel that the Country's obligation to the Wounded Soldiers and to the widows and dependents of those who have made the supreme sacrifice, should not be forgotten.

Gifts of Farm Stock, Produce, Implements, Furniture, or other Effects of any kind whatsoever, will be thankfully received by any member of the Committee, or by Messrs Ebrill Bros, Auctioneers.

Those who intend to give something are requested to send notice without delay, so that they may be included in the Catalogue, which will be issued for the Sale.
