OBITUARY.

MRS. E. NUNAN.

We regret to announce that Mrs. Elizabeth Nunan died at her residence, Prospect, Castletroy, last night, after a protracted illness. The deceased had attained an advanced age, and was widow of the late Mr. William Nunan, who for very many years was connected with the public life of the county, on the Board of Guardians and County Council. The remains will be removed from Monaleen Church to-morrow at 12.30 o'clock for interment in the family burial-place, Inch St. Laurence.

MRS. M. MORRISSEY, CHARLEVILLE.

Sincere regret is felt in the city at the death of Mrs. M. Morrissey, which occurred at her residence, Charleville, on Sunday from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza. The deceased was wife of Mr. Michael Morrissey, flour merchant, Charleville, and eldest daughter of Mr. P. Punch, St. Alphonsus Avenue, Limerick. She had only been married a few years, and her demise in the prime of life is a great loss to her husband and relatives, who in their affliction have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

MR. M. BYRNES.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place in St. John's Hospital on Friday evening from pneumonia supervening an attack of influenza of Mr. M. Byrnes, Upper Cecil Street. The deceased was an assistant at Messrs. G. McKern and Sons for the past five years and was held in great regard by the firm and a large number of friends who deeply regret his premature demise. The funeral took place on Sunday for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery and was attended by a large and representative body of mourners. The officiating clergy were the Rev. Fr. Dwane, A.D.M., and Rev. Fr. Hannan, C.C., and some choice floral tributes were laid on the grave.

MR. T. A. O'BRIEN.

The death took place at Galway on Thursday, after a brief illness, of Mr. Thos. A. O'Brien, in his twenty-third year. The deceased was son of Mrs. K. O'Brien, Lower Cecil Street, and was a medical student in Galway University College. His death in the prime of life is a sore blow to his mother and relatives, with whom the sympathy of numerous friends is expressed. The remains arrived in the city on Friday evening at half-past five o'clock, and were taken to St. Michael's Church, and the interment took place on Saturday in Mount St. Laurence Cemetery, the funeral being largely attended.

THE LATE MR. HUGH McMAHON.

Trade Journal's Appreciation.

The following, taken from "The Trades Journal," will be read with interest by fellow-citizens who knew and admired the late Mr. Hugh McMahon:—

"We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Hugh McMahon, Chairman and Managing Director of James McMahon, Ltd., St. Alphonsus Street, Limerick, which occurred Tuesday, 11 February, at his residence, Dogra, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, after a brief illness."

HOUSING IN IRELAND.

Major Lloyd Graeme, in the House of Commons yesterday, asked the Prime Minister whether he intended to offer to Irish local authorities more favourable financial conditions in respect of the make up of annual deficits in housing schemes than those offered to local authorities in Great Britain, and, if so, what were the reasons of preferential treatment.

Mr. Baldwin—The terms of the English Act are not suitable to Irish conditions, and I am in consultation with my right hon. friend the Secretary as to the best equivalent in Ireland.
Major Lloyd Graeme—Will there be any
