

of the project as public opinion has been in France." The Government, appears to have been converted. It will, it is thought, consist of two lines running for a length of thirty miles, of which will be under the sea. One line will be for the trains from Paris to London, and the other for those from London to the French Capital. The cost of the project is estimated at twenty millions, or an increase of 25 per cent over the former estimate, due to increased cost of iron and material since the war. The Government in Paris will, it is said, arrange the means for the construction of the line.

There is also talk of schemes for tunnels under the Bosphorus and Straits of Gibraltar, thus connecting Europe with Africa and Asia. A tunnel between Ireland and England has long been in view of the schemes just referred to, and there is the possibility that this may materialise sooner or later. Its object in expediting the journey between the two countries is self-evident, while it is important still it would certainly expedite the American traffic with the Kingdom. Thus, Ireland as a connecting link would stand to gain very much if such a tunnel were in existence. But, the Anglo-French scheme will be the further action in a direction that will come to our own doors as the say-

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Facilitate the closing of accounts, subscribers of "The Chronicle" who have not already done so, are requested to remit forthwith subscriptions for the year.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Sizes Calendar.

Business of the Limerick Spring Assizes concluded on Tuesday evening, and on that point of view of expedition in dealing with cases, criminal and civil, constituted a fine record. In the City Court there was one Crown case listed for hearing, and the accused person pleading guilty to the indictment. Justice O'Connor was able to take up his work early. Sir John Rosa, who opened the assizes in the County Court, had a heavier calendar to dispose of, some four cases in all, a charge of manslaughter, finished up in the evening, and his Lordship was engaged in investigating a record case. Lord Connors, on his first visit to Limerick as

Amongst the recipients of the Military Cross are Temporary Lieut (Acting Capt) William Joseph Magner, 6th Bat., R.M.F., attached to 2nd Bat., and Lieut Thomas Joseph O'Meara, R.M.F., Spec Res, Secd 19th Bat.

It will be seen by advertisement that a meeting of the Limerick and Clare Farmers' Association will be held on Saturday next, at the I.A.W.S premises, Thomas-street, at 2.30 p.m.

Many friends in Limerick will regret to observe the announcement of the death of Mrs O'Hara, wife of Mr Charles H O'Hara, D.J., M.I.C., Dundrum, and second daughter of the late Hon John French, R.M. Both Mr French and Mr O'Hara were formerly officially connected with Limerick.

At the meeting of Kilrush Board of Guardians on the motion of Mr Campbell, seconded by Mr Ryan, a vote of condolence was passed to Mr Michael Crotty, U.C on the death of his son in France who was in the United States Army.

Replying to Major Newman, in the House of Commons, Mr Bridgeman said the supply of houses hold coal is still below the normal, and the stock-in-hand are considerably less than is desirable. Economy is still very necessary. The present restrictions cannot safely be relaxed.

FUNERAL OF MR D LYNCH.

The remains of the late Mr Daniel Lynch, licensed viator, whose death occurred on Tuesday at his residence, 29 Roche's street, were interred to-day in Mount St Laurence Cemetery. The funeral was large and representative, and was a fitting tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, and expressive of the sympathy felt for his wife and children in their sorrow.

The chief mourners were—Mrs J Lynch (wife), Arthur, George, Walter, and Daniel Lynch (sons), May, Killyland Angela Lynch (daughters), Pk Lynch (brother), Patrick Doherty (brother-in-law), Michael and John Lynch (nephews), Michael McNamara, Stephen Burns, Alfred J Sexton, senior; Alfred J Sexton, junior; William, James, and Thomas Sexton, J T Lyons, David Hanly, Michael Muleahy, Vincent and Bernard Byrnes, John Leahy, and John Whelan (relatives).

The clergy present were—Rev Fr Dwane, Adm. St Michael's; Rev Fr Hannan, C.C.; Rev Fr Thornhill, C.C.; Rev Fr Carroll, C.C.; Rev Fr Hayes, C.C.; Very Rev Fr Hennessy, O.S.A.; Rev Fr Tracy, C.C.; Rev Fr Colbert, C.C., Rev Fr Dahig, O.P. and Rev Fr Carroll, C.C., St Mary's.

CONSTABLE PROMOTED.

At Kilrush Petty Sessions, the magistrates presiding being Mr G H Mercer, R.M. (in the chair), Mr Wm Carmody, and Mr Thomas Nagle. Mr Nagle congratulated Constable Michael O'Shea on his promotion to the rank of sergeant. He was for a number of years stationed in Kilrush, and during that time discharged his duties in a most straightforward and efficient manner. He was only voicing the opinion of the public generally.

Mr Carmody—He deserves it all. I agree with every word Mr Nagle has said.

Chairman—This is very gratifying.

Mr D Barrett, D.I.—He is a most capable officer.

Sir Blackall, C.P.S., was directed to forward a copy of the resolution to the Inspector-General.

LIMERICK SPRING ASSIZES.

Departure of the Judges.

The business of the Limerick Assizes concluded loss to his family. to his business the trade of Limerick, and it is hard to supply his place. He professed condolence and sympathy with the lamented deceased.

Mr O'Donnell seconded the proposition that he agreed with all that with regard to the late Mr McMahon. Mr O'Shughnessy, Clerk, on behalf of the staff and himself desired to be both the resolutions.

The proposition of Canon O'Driscoll was unanimously agreed.

Alderman McNeice returned the death of Mr McMahon was a great concern, but it was a good thing to feel that his relatives had the sympathy of their friends here and in the city.

MONTHLY REPORT.

Dr Kelly, Assistant Resident Superintendent, read his monthly report. He begged to report that the monthly meeting there was a good business amongst the staff and patients at the female side of the house, on account of a break of influenza. Thirteen patients were admitted, and there are no charges. The number in residence 579. I regret to inform you of the death of Fitzgerald, assistant attendant, necessary to fill the vacancy caused at our next meeting.

Canon O'Driscoll said the mortality was destructive as at the Workhouse, and told, it was at the rate of one inmate

REMOVED PATIENTS.

A letter was read from the Officers of the Asylums intimating that where removed by their friends during the absence of attendants they could be absolutely fit, without being brought back to the hospital.

The Chairman said they could not do otherwise than advise.

ESCAPED PATIENTS.

Dr Kelly, in reply to a member of the staff, said that during the recent absence of attendants, two patients were brought back, and one was not.

ASYLUM FARM.

The Department of Agriculture were prepared to contribute two-thirds of the estimated cost of £150 for drainage of the Asylum farm.

The letter was referred to the Committee.

INCREASES OF SALARY ASSISTANTS.

Messrs O'Flynn, solicitors, and Mr J. J. O'Sullivan, assistant clerk, wrote applying for an increase of their salaries.

In answer to the Chairman, Mr O'Shughnessy said Mr C. O'Flynn's salary was £100 £20 war bonus, and £5 and Mr O'Sullivan's was £80 and £34 allowance war bonus of £12 10s.

Mr O'Donnell said both officers were of every consideration owing to the fact they gave during the attendants strike.

The Chairman said the Committee would not forget it. He did not know how much they could have got on but for their assistance. Notices of motion were handed in by Mr O'Donnell and Mr O'Sullivan to have the salaries considered at the next meeting.

TENDERS FOR BLANKETS.

Tenders for blankets were received from Messrs J. J. O'Sullivan and Co., and from Messrs J. J. O'Sullivan and Co., and from Messrs J. J. O'Sullivan and Co.

The amount of the tenders were not accepted.

WAGES IN BULLING TRADE.

Mr P. Walsh, Chairman, Bulling Trade, wrote that the rate of wages had been fixed at 10s per week.