FOOD AND DRUGS ACT

John Fitzgibbon, O'Connell-street, was summoned by Sergeant Haffernar for a breach of the Food and Drugs Act.

The Sergeant, who is Inspector of Food and Drugs, stated that he took a sample of lime water at the defendant's premises and forward-d it for analysis. The certificate of Sir Charles Cameron showed that the sample contained only 0.0594 grammes per hundred millilitres, whereas it should contain 0.116 grammes.

For the defence Mr P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor, aid when the sergeant called and took the sample Mr Fitzgibbon told him that he was only after making up the fluid, and it had not time to settle down.

The Bench inflicted a fine of 2s 6d and costs.
The Court then rose.

GRAVE EGYPTIAN SITUATION.

The Press Bureau last night issued the following —In view of the grave situation in Egypt and the absence of His Majesty's High Commissioner from that country, the King has appointed General Allenby to be His Majesty's Special High Commissioner for Egypt and the Sudan. He is directed to exercise supreme authority in all matters, military and civil, to take all such measures he considered necessary and expedient to restore law and order in these countries, and to order and administer in all matters, as may be required by the necessity of maintaining the King's protectorate over Egypt on a secure and equitable basis.

FUNERAL OF MR M O'TOOLE.

The remains of the late Mr Michael O'Toole, a highly esteemed and popular citizen, were interred this morning in Mount St Lawrence Cemetery.
At 10 o'clock the funeral left St Michael's Parochial Church, where the remains rested overnight, being removed thither last evening from "Glenade," O'Connell Avenue, the residence of the late deceased. The cortege was large and representative, and testified to the regard in which the deceased was held in the city and the sorrow felt for his family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Joseph, John, and George O'Toole (sons); Edward and John O'Toole, J. Daly, and Eamon O'Toole (nephews); Michael and David Gilligan, David Naughton, D.C. (relatives).
The clergy present were—Rev Fr Dwane, Adm, St Michael's; Rev Fr Carroll, C.C.; Rev Fr Thornhill, C.C.; Rev Fr Hannan, C.C.; Rev Fr O'Rielly, S.J., and Rev Fr McWilliams, S.J.

Fr Dwane officiated at the grave.
