DEATH OF MR D MULCAHY.

The death, which will be generally regretted by the citizens, took place in Barrington's Hospital on Sunday of Mr David Mulcahy at an advanced age. The deceased had been employed for almost half a century at the Church of St Alphonsus, where he was a familiar figure at all the church festivals. He was a trusted and faithful servant, and his demise has been learned with regret by the Redemptorist Fathers and the public. The funeral on Tuesday was largely attended.

ment to the memory of the deceased formed a guard of honour in the City both sides of the nave and choir up to the service, and on the removal of the coffin for interment every detail in connection with the funeral was carried out in the most and kindest manner possible.

It was five minutes after three o'clock that the remains were taken out of the City. At this time the weather, which was thick in the forenoon, had cleared up, and a large number of people congregated in the space in front of the cathedral. Proceeding in the coffin, accompanied by twenty-five of the city clergy, both regular and secular, and crowned with wreaths, and next the friends and friends carrying more floral tributes, the procession was taken the entire distance to Laurence cemetery by the friends of the deceased. The arrangements in this respect were supervised by the Rev Fr Kelly, C.S.S.R. The funeral was through John-street, 1 Charlotte's Quay, Rutland-street, Park-street, William-street, and George-street, to the last resting place. As the procession passed along business houses were blinds drawn, while the immense numbers of people lined the whole route respectfully. At various points where the military and police were posted, there was some apprehension toward the occurrence, but nothing took place. The coffin passed at these places to the accompaniment of the friends of the deceased. The procession that it took an hour and a half to pass a given point, and it is estimated that at least fifteen thousand people took part in it.

The Mayor, who was attended by his bearers, was present, as well as members of the Corporation, while every class in the City was represented. It was a striking demonstration of respect to the memory of the deceased, and expressive of the sympathy felt for him and family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Mary Byrne, mother; John H Byrne and Thomas Byrne, brothers; Mrs E Crowe, aunt; Thomas and Dermot Crowe, Aiden and George Byrne (Dublin), Alderman A Byrne, George Byrne (Dublin), cousins; and other relatives. The clergy present at the Mass were Rev Fr Kelly, C.S.S.R., and Rev Fr Connolly.

The celebrant was Rev Fr Connolly, C.S.S.R., O.S.A.; Rev Fr Carroll, C.C., and master of ceremonies, Rev Fr McNamara, C.C.

The clergy in the choir were—Rev Fr Adm; Rev Fr Hannan, C.C.; Rev Fr C Tracey, C.C.; Rev Fr Hayes, C.C.; Rev Fr Kelly, C.C.; Rev Fr Rice, C.C.; Rev Fr Kelly, C.C.; Rev Fr O'F M; Rev Fr Ambrose, O.F.M., and Rev Fr Hunt, O.S.A.

Father Connolly officiated at the grave.
