Mr Justice Samuels—Very well, Sergeant. The second motion against the "Freeman's Journal" was by the Irish Paper Mills for final judgment for £1,515. Counsel for the "Freeman's Journal" said they claimed certain allowances reducing the amount due to £512. The Judge made no rule on the motion. Mr Justice Samuels granted the receiver of the "Freeman" permission to borrow £5,000 to carry on the business, the sum to be charged on the property.

FUNERAL OF MR JOSEPH SMYTH.

Yesterday the remains of the late Mr Joseph Smith, of William street, whose death took place at Barrington's Hospital on Wednesday last, were interred in the family burial place, Askeaton. The deceased, who was a member of an old County Limerick family, was held in high esteem by all who knew him, and his demise has been keenly regretted. The funeral was of large proportions and testified to his popularity.

The chief mourners were—Joe, Walter, and Charlie (sons), Bob and Chailis (brothers), Susie, Georgina, and Mrs Perrott (sisters), Susie Long (sister-in-law), Mr Long (father-in-law), John and Jim Long, Harry Perrott, Tom Shine and Harry Miller (brothers-in-law), Frack Weir (uncle), Harold Shine (nephew), Robert Smyth (cousin), Charles Smyth, Ballyvogue, George Smyth, Moig, George Weir, Albert Smyth, James Smyth, Reyntulla, Jack Smyth, Adare, Richard Lynch, Peter Switzer, Jack and Richard Latchford, Joe and Julius Sheppard, George and Dr Roberts, Mr Byrne, Mrs Hayer, Shannon street, Mrs Stiver, Adare (cousins), etc.

Wreaths were sent by the following—"To our darling from his heart-broken wife and children"; "To our darling Joe from his heart-broken brothers and sisters"; "From his sorrowing sister and brother, Lizzie and Harry"; "With deepest sympathy from Mr, Mrs Long and family, Tough"; "With deepest sympathy, from Daisy and Charlie"; "In painful grief, from Elizabeth and Tom"; "In sad and loving memory, from Harry and Eileen"; "With sincere sympathy and regret, from Mr and Mrs John Earlie"; "With sincere sympathy, from Mr and Mrs Water on and family, Kilsely House"; "With deepest sympathy, from Mr Fitzpatrick"; "With deepest sympathy, from the Employees."

The clergy present were—The Rev Chancellor Waller, Rev V G Sutchiff, and Canon Abbott. The Rev Chancellor Gabbott officiated at the graveside.

BETTER PUDDINGS AT LESS COST

"ATORA" Beef Suet makes milk puddings far or smier and nicer than does an egg. Doctors recommend it for growing children. "ATORA" is really commercial, 1½ lbs, go as far as 2 lbs of ordinary butcher's suet as "ATORA" contains no waste, skin or moisture, and is ready for instant use. It saves time and money, and is really nutritious food for young and old. Use Shredded "ATORA" for puddings and mincemeat, and block "ATORA" for frying and cooking. Sold by all Grocers in 1 lb and ½ lb cartons.
