In the circumstances, it seems advisable that who can vote during the slack hours next uesday should do so, and also that every facility uld be afforded to working class voters where sible to get off to register their votes. The rs of voting, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., are fixed by te, and cannot be altered, and this will n in practice, unless precautions are taken, t there will be an undue rush between 1 and 2
