evening when the distinguished lecturer, Mr Ernest, Wellbeloved, will, under the auspices of the Literary Class of the P.Y.M.A, lecture on "An Evening with Dickens." There will be numerous selections from the famous author. It is an altogether admirable programme, and we anticipate the lecture hall will be crowded to hear Mr Wellbeloved, of whom the Press speaks in the highest praise. "The Glasgow Herald," for instance, says — Mr Ernest Wellof Lenden, proved beloved. of the art of elecution, and delighted the audience with such various recitals as 'Bob Sawyers' Party,' 'Old Cheeseman,' and 'The Death of Sydney Carton,' as well as with character sketches of 'My Chadband, Fagin and Little Nel.'s Grand.

RUGBY FOOTBALL

The initial round of the Munster Charity Cup commences on Saturday next at the Markets Field when Shannon meets Young Munster. The match will no doubt attract a large attendance, [and should be productive of good football in all departments. Both sides have trained hard for the encounter, and as many pre-war players will take past in the game, it is safe to anticipate a good exposition all round. The mutch is timed to start at 3 15 p.m.

MR ASQUITH AND LABOUR.

Mr Acquith, Mr MacKean, and Mr Biggar were nominated at Paisley on Tuesday. Mr Asquith, speaking at night, said that Labour had attacked the Liberals on their Irish record, but the Labour record was that some of them remained in the Government whilst the futile Irish cooscription measures was passed. His scheme for the central of the mines was democratic, whilst that of Mr Smillie was Bureaucratic.
