POLICE RESIGNATIONS.

Dublin Recorder's Court yesterday, of the absence of police witnesses in tion cases, a police official intimated witnesses had retired from the force. er said that these resignations appeared on to an extraordinary extent. That rd announced that day.

ardians asked the L.G.B. to reconsider not to sanction the scale of new sala-pensary docters, from £250 to £350,

CATHOLIC LITERARY INSTITUTE.

The Rev F. Philip, O.F.M, lectured last night to a large audience at the Catholic Literary Institute, the subject being "Ireland in Rome," one of the many points of view from which the Eternal City, its history, and stirring associations, may be regarded. The lecturer dealt with the religious side of the subject, and Father Phillip gave his hearers a most interesting account of the Irish College in Rome, St Clement's, the Dominican foundation, and San Isidore, the Franciscan foundation. Some admirable photographs were thrown on the screen, and Father Phillip made his audience realise how swift time flies when one sits hearing a discourse well, aptly, and attractively told, and a theme whose charm and appeal time fails to dim. Very Rev. Canon O'Driscoll, P.P, at the close, conveyed the thanks of the audience to Father Phillip, who acknowledged the compliment, and also to Father Hogan, C.C, St Munchin's College, who had charge of the lantern.

RAIDS IN COUNTY LIMERICK.

During the past week some half-a-dozen raids for guns have been made in County Limerick, the arms taken including four guns and a shotgun. In one case the gentleman whose house was visited refused to admit the raiders, throwing out a gun to the party, who then retreated. In the Patrikewell district raids are also reported to have taken place.

DEATH OF MR M. P. O'SHAUGHNESSY, NEWCASTLE-WEST.

The death, which is greatly regretted in West Limerick and by many friends in the city, took place on Thursday night at his residence, Cullina, Newcastle-west, of Mr M P O'Shaughnessy, J.P.
 The deceased, who was quite a young man, was only son of the late Mr P O'Shaughnessy, J.P., Newcastle-west, for many years a member of the Limerick County Council. He had only been ailing a short time, and his death has come as a shock to his mother and relatives, for whom the greatest sympathy is felt in their bereavement.

GAIETY THEATRE.

At the Gaiety Theatre next week a fine picture programme is assured patrons, and one that is certain to merit popular approval. On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights "Extravagance," a Lasky drama, featuring Miss Dorothy Dalton, will be screened, as well as comedies and scenic films. "The First Man in the Moon" is the title of a picture to be shown on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, in addition to a Gaumont screen adaptation of the famous story by Mr H G Wells, the eminent publicist.
