

He explained how the officers and different battalions were grouped for the convenience of the commissariat, and obviating confusion when undertaking in this connection the difficulties adjudicator experienced. Passing from the shell torn battle grounds, dug outs, and all the other paraphernalia of the audience through parts of Italy, the Empire in Europe, if so it may still be, and the Holy Land, describing the different places with great fidelity, of them being apparent to all in the they were shown on the screen. The included his address with a meed of the brave men who had fought and the principles of right as against might, that Great Britain, and her Allies, great freedom and everything good they the result of their prodigious labours and their achievements in the Great War, so included, to the goodness of God, and his valour of their sons.

In conclusion of the lecture, the Rev Canonenary Class President, thanked the Rev the very heartily on behalf of all present exceedingly interesting lecture, which he audience into an intimate contact actualities of the term "Active Service," led one to realize the hardship and the who fought had to endure. The vinced their thankfulness by loud and applause.

Friday night the concluding meeting of the Class will be held also in the Lectures Association, when we will have the opportunity of witnessing the performance by a student from among the Junior Members of the nation of a short humorous play entitled "The Next". Full details will be found in the following columns.

MAKING OF HUMAN LIFE.

Rev Dr Hart's Condemnation

reference to the murder of Constable Heaney, Thurlis, his Grace the Most Rev Dr Archbishop of Cashel, has addressed the letter to the Parish Priest, Rev Michael O'Meara:

The Palace, Thurlis,
11th March, 1920.
Dear Father Finn.—Now that the inquest verdict of the Ragg shooting has made it clear, I express to you my horror at that event. It is deplorable should so despise the laws of God as to take a life in this unholy fashion. I deeply sympathize with you in your grief.
Yours very faithfully,
J. M. HARTY

S. HARTIGAN'S LAND SALES

Salesroom, 7 Davis Street, Limerick. Messrs Hartigan sold for John Hynes, farm at Enaghroe, containing 40 statute acres, licensed house thereon, for £4,050 and purchaser being Edmund Moloney, Esq. Mr. E. G. Solicitor, had carriage of sale. Mr. P. O'Meara, not having reached their were withdrawn for sale by private. The bidding for Enaghroe started at £4,000 in keen competition it reached the final price obtained.

At a meeting of Ennis Board of Guardians on Monday, Mr J Halpin, Vice-Chairman, in the resolution protesting against the Education Bill was unanimously passed.

11th March, 1920, as a result of a bullet wound and hemorrhage, and that said wound was inflicted by some person or persons unknown. They desired to tender to the widow and relatives of the deceased their sympathy in their bereavement.

The proceedings then concluded. The remains were subsequently removed to the Rathkeale police barrack, awaiting interment. The late Sergeant Neenan was a native of Ballycahane, Pallaskeyry, where his wife and two children reside. He was one of the best-known members of the Co Kerry police force, and had been stationed in Tralee for some years. For some time past he had been located at Ratoe protection post, Lixnaw. He was an efficient police officer.

The remains were removed from Rathkeale police station at half-past one yesterday for interment in the family burial at Castletown, Pallaskeyry. The funeral, which travelled by road, a distance of ten miles, was attended by a large number of people and members of the constabulary.

Constable Doyle, who was wounded in the shooting, was removed from Rathkeale Union Hospital on Thursday by motor ambulance to the Military Hospital, New Barracks, for special treatment. He was wounded in the hip and wrist, but his condition is not serious, and his recovery is expected to be rapid. He is a married man, with no family, and had been also stationed at Ratoe protection post for some time past.

An additional establishment of police has been drafted into Rathkeale, but there are no military posts in the town.

Enquiries are being prosecuted into the identity of the men who took part in the raid, but so far no arrests have been made.

CITY FATALITY.

An inquest was held yesterday by Mr J F Barry, Coroner, at the City Courthouse, touching the death of James Downes, single, aged 38, an ex-soldier, who was found dead near the mouth of the lime-kiln off the Dock road on Thursday morning. To get into the kiln a wall six to eight feet had to be climbed. The evidence of Dr Graham was that in his opinion death was due to the breathing of carbon monoxide gas, causing insensibility, and the jury found accordingly.

THE LATE MR G J QU Aid.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee of the Limerick County Council to-day, Mr M Quinlan, J.P., proposed a resolution tendering to the Secretary, Mr J J Quaid, J.P., the deep expression of their sympathy and condolence on the death of his brother, Mr George J Quaid, for many years Clerk of Dromcollogher Petty Sessions.

Mr J Coleman, J.P., seconded the resolution, with which the other members present associated themselves.

The resolution was passed in silence, and the business was adjourned as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased.

LIMERICK NO 2 DISTRICT COUNCIL

A meeting of Limerick No 2 District Council was held to-day. Mr E O'Dwyer presiding.

A claim for £150, compensation for damage and loss of property, was received from Captain J O'Connell on the occasion of the recent raid at Castle Park, and referred to the solicitor. It was decided on a division not to prosecute an appeal in the malicious injury claim of Cherry v No 2 District Council. The other business was routine.

home team had the better of the game and emerged victors on the score:—
Wales
Ireland

Shannon v. Young Munster

The semi-final tie in the Munster competition, between Shannon and Young Munster, attracted a large attendance at Markets Field this evening. Result: Shannon
Young Munster
Mr J F Musgrave, Cork, refereed.

LIMERICK MARKET

BUTTER—2s 10d to 3s 0d per lb
FOWL—Chickens, 10s 0d to 12s 0d
TURNIPS—20 loads; 40s to 45s 0d
MANGOLDS—10 loads; 38s to 42s
PLANTS—Early York, 1s 6d to 2s common cabbage, 1s 0d to 1s 6d per Eggs—Hen eggs, 2s 6d to 2s 8d
duck eggs, 3s 0d to 3s 3d per doz

POTATOES—There were 60 loads to-day. Price—1s 3d to 1s 6d per SATURDAY'S WEEKLY CATTLE MARKET were 510 calves in market. They so 0s to £3 0s.

CORN—79 barrels of oats in market. White oats (seed) from 2s 5d to 2s 8d; black oats, 2s 3d to 2s 3½d.

HAY and STRAW—There were 50 and 11 loads of oat straw in market. Rye hay sold at from £8 10s to £9 10s; clover hay, £6 0s to £8 0s; core hay, £7 0s; oaten straw, £4 10s to £5 10s.

CORK BUTTER MARK THIS DAY.

(BY TELEGRAPH.)

Supply small; demand quiet. West Cork, 30s; Fresh (A), 30s.
Centrifugal Creamery—First Grade, 28s; Second Grade, 28s; Third Grade, 26s.

THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK

Weekly Market—Fat Cattle, Stock and Sheep

Wednesday, March 10th—Season A strong following of buyers; class well represented; values were a retail market, with an occasional advance supply and demand nicely balanced. Drafts met sharp competition; as required for and changed hands at a sustained throughout the day. bullocks, £35; strippers, £23 5s; bullocks, £24 10s; to £27 5s; second £22 10s; two-year-old heifers, £24 next best, £20 to £23 7s 6d; yearling ordinary, £14 to £15 13s 6d; med £12 10s; small, £8 to £9 3s; sheep £8 10s to £9 15s; store hoggets, £1

At the meeting of Kilrush Board Mr W C Doherty, J.P., Chairman, Local Government Board wrote members to the Kilrush Poor Law under the Local Government Act,