

correspondent points out, "with some exceptions, like with the most of the democratic countries in Europe where journalists frequently reach the foremost place in politics," though, as he adds, no professional Press man has as yet in England reached the top of the political tree.

DARING ROBBERY IN LIMERICK.

Big Sum of Money Carried Off.

Mr T S Deane, Manager Rathkeale Branch of the National Bank, travelled to Limerick yesterday by train, carrying a bag containing, it is stated, no less than a sum of six thousand pounds in bank notes. He delayed for a time on arrival in the city at the railway station, and while there some three or four men accosted Mr Deane, threw dust or pepper in his eyes, and made off with the bag containing the money. The police have been communicated with, and are instituting inquiries without result so far.

FUNERAL OF MRS CARROLL, BRUREE.

The death of this esteemed lady, relict of late Mr John Carroll, Kilsenore, and daughter of late Mr Matthew MacNamara, Shelbourne, on 4th inst, was the occasion of widespread regret amongst her family and large circle of friends in city and county. Her remains were removed to the Catholic Church, Bruree, where High Mass for the dead was celebrated by the Rev Fr Murphy, C.C., assisted by Rev Fr O'Connor, P.P.; Rev Robert Fitzgerald, P.P., Effin; Rev P Woulfe, C.C. Kilmallock; Rev P Mangan, C.C. do; Rev J Higgins, C.C. Kilfinane. Very Rev Canon Keane, P.P., Glin, and Rev W O'Reilly, S.J., assisted at the obsequies at Mount St Lawrence, where the deceased was laid to rest.

The chief mourners were—John Carroll (son), Agnes Carroll (daughter), John MacNamara, Thos MacNamara (brothers), Mrs M Canty, Mrs Hickey, Mrs O'Donovan (sisters), Joseph Carroll, John Carroll, Wm Carroll, John Canty, Joe Canty, Jas Canty, John Hickey, Mat Hickey, Mat MacNamara, Michl MacNamara, Dermot O'Donovan, Donough O'Donovan (nephews), Misses Nellie Carroll, Mary Carroll, Alice Canty, Emmie Canty, Agnes Canty, Mrs M Kelly, Mary O'Donovan, Josephine Carroll (nieces), John Hickey, Denis O'Donovan (brothers-in-law), Mrs J MacNamara, Mrs T MacNamara (sister-in-law), John J Carroll, Mrs Carroll, Grove, Wm Guerin, David Guerin, P O'Halloran, D.C., Miss O'Halloran, Mat MacNamara, Mrs Guilane (cousins).

LIMERICK BOARD OF GUARDIANS

Mr A Brennan presided at the meeting of the Limerick Board of Guardians yesterday. There was a large attendance of members.

Arising out of relief business the Chairman said if they continued granting outdoor relief as they were there would be an increase of £3,000 or £4,000 in a fortnight.

Nurse Laffan, Limerick Nurses' Association, wrote applying to have the order getting them the eight-hour day and increase of salary passed last March put into force.

The application was granted.

Alderman Walsh's notice of motion to have the date of meeting changed to Saturday at 2 o'clock was adopted by 22 votes to 3.

Adjourned.

Richardson was arraigned and pleaded not robbery of £14 and three bottles of property of Mrs Ellen Quin, on the Mr L O'B Kelly (instructed by M Crown Solicitor), appeared for the Mr P Kelly (instructed by Mr J H was for the accused.

The evidence went to show that with two other men, who were in Mrs Quin's shop on the date in after threatening her with a revolver and three bottles of whiskey.

The defence was an alibi.

The jury failed to agree and Mr Phillips was then indicted on a charge from the Soldiers' Home and circumstances on the 19th April.

He pleaded not guilty, and the fact that he was accompanied by four of the managers, Miss Mabel Robinson, who identified the accused of the raiders.

In this case also the jury failed to reach a verdict, and the prisoner was put to stand his trial at the next Winter Assizes in Limerick.

Frederick G S Richardson, pleaded guilty to the larceny of property on occasions of motor cars, the property in Templemore, Scariff, Galway, a Mr M J Kenny, K.C., and Mr J H Moran, solicitor, instructed by Mr J H Moran, solicitor, for the accused, who was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

In the charge against Percival charged with aiding and abetting in the Crown sent up no bill to the Grand Jury, the accused was discharged.

APPEALS.
(Before Mr Justice Molony)

John Moloney was respondent in John Gore from a decision by the Judge at the October Quarter Sessions in a sum of £20 (to be reduced to the goods were returned) for trover of goods in 1919.

Mr P Kelly (instructed by Mr McCoy) was for the respondent; Binchy (instructed by Messrs J J for the appellant.

His Lordship reduced the decree to be executed for costs only to be returned by the 1st August.

The Great Southern and Western Company appealed from a decree to James J Doran for loss through negligence of the defendants' error to a mirror while in transit of the Company's system.

His Lordship reversed the decree below.

Mr J Fitzgerald (instructed by Macaulay) for the plaintiff, and (instructed by Mr J Condon) for the defendant.

At the Rathkeale Quarter Sessions Garrett Doyle, the plaintiff, was in a claim for £4,000 for injury on 10th March while in the execution of his duty he appealed.

From this award he appealed, ordered to be levied in the proportion on the Kerry county, and £93 on the Kerry Rural District.

Mr E J Phelps (instructed by Connolly and Co), appearing for the plaintiff, he was in the peculiar position of having no appearance for the defendant.

The District Councils concerned in the case was that he was protected by O'Brien, from Co Kerry, at the day in question. In the evidence