CITY REGATTA.

The Regatta will take place on the 15th and arrangements for the fixture are being forwarded with rapidity. The daily service this year, unless a gale interfered in the meantime, will be the fixture, inasmuch as clubs find it difficult to send crews, and the competition to a considerable extent will be confined to our four local clubs. It is here will be excellent material for the events which constitute the Regatta, as far as can be seen in nearly all the events, the Boat Club will also be found to part in the competitions, and applies to Athlone Boat Club, Michael's Rowing Club. The Regatta may be relied upon to be a sports occasion, and the clubs are at practice, and on account of themselves with nervous competition from out-

PARLIAMENTARY INJURIES BILL.

The Injuries Bill, introduced into the House of Commons on Tuesday by the Irish Chief Secretary, London correspondent says, to enable the Government to legislate to local authorities in Ireland damages awarded by the Courts to persons in respect of malicious injuries. The Bill stands such deduction can be made in respect of Government departments is, of course, to get at persons who refuse payment of damages, and there have been cases of late. Another important feature is the considerable extension of the law wherein a claim for malicious injury can be lodged.

The officials in attendance were—Dr P. J. Irwin, Resident Medical Superintendent, and Dr L. Kelly, Asst. do.

Dr Irwin said he desired to welcome the new members—that was the representatives of the Co. Council, on the Committee. As far as the business of the Committee was concerned, the officials would co-operate in every way to carry out the duties imposed on them. They would work wholeheartedly with the Committee for the benefit of the ratepayers, and in the interest of the unfortunate people committed to their care.

The Mayor joined in the welcome extended to the county members.

Mr DeLacy said there were very few members present—members that they expected to be there, as that was the first meeting of the new Committee practically. Their absence no doubt was due to the want of travelling facilities, and as it was necessary to have a full membership at that meeting he proposed, when the financial business was finished, that the meeting adjourn for a fortnight.

Mr Lynch seconded the proposition, which was passed, and the Committee adjourned after transacting the financial business.

THE LISTOWEL POLICE INCIDENT

Questions in Parliament.

Sir H Greenwood, replying to a question in the House of Commons last evening relative to the Listowel police incident, said that the Divisional Commissioner did make a speech to 18 members of the police at Listowel on June 19th, but Colonel Smyth repudiated the accuracy of the statements in the report, and he (the Chief Secretary) was satisfied the newspaper report was distorted, and wholly misleading.
