

public interest in the great fixture now being held at Ballsbridge is as keen as ever, and it is to be noted with much satisfaction that the Show opened in fine weather, and though another "break" set in yesterday afternoon in Limerick, though not in Dublin, it is earnestly to be hoped that King Sol will soon make his appearance once more and come to stay for the remainder of the season. Settled weather conditions are very badly wanted both in the interest of the farmer and the holiday-maker, and it is to be hoped that the enjoyment of Horti Show week will not to any extent be marred by the rainy element which has now been persistently with us for six weeks or so.

COUNTY INFIRMARY.

Appointment of Nurses

At the meeting of the Governing Committee of the County Limerick Infirmary yesterday, the Rev R McCarthy, U.C, presiding, thirty applications were received for two vacancies on the nursing staff. The Committee went very carefully through the applications and testimonials and elected Miss Eily Hinchy, Tankardstown, Bruff, and Miss M O'Callaghan, Dublin road, Omagh, as being the best qualified.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A little girl named Mary Ellen McNamara while playing with her juvenile companions a few evenings since by the river side was accidentally injured by some planks falling on her. She was brought to Barrington's Hospital for treatment, her condition taking a serious turn with fatal result yesterday evening. There was no inquest held.

KILMALLOCK SHOW POSTPONED.

At a special meeting of the Kilmallock Agriculture and Industrial Society, with Mr A Walsh in the chair, it was decided to postpone the Show announced for the 1st and 2nd September next. This action was taken on account of the Curfew Order and the prohibiting all fairs, meetings, etc, in Kilmallock and surrounding districts.

CONSTABULARY RECRUIT WOUNDED.

A Constable, an English recruit of the Royal Irish Constabulary, stationed in John street, was accidentally wounded yesterday morning while placing his revolver in his holster in William street station. The revolver, which was loaded, fell from his hand, and a bullet went off, penetrating his right thigh. The wound was not very serious, and after being surgically treated the constable was removed to his military hospital, New Barracks.
