

being saved.

Dr Cremin described the injuries sustained by the applicant, and was of opinion that as a result his concentration was affected. There would be no permanent effects.

His Honor gave a decree for £165.

Kate Cragan, draper, the Square, Newcastle West, applied for £32 compensation for the malicious breaking of a plate glass window in her premises on the 19th December.

Mr R Cussen, solicitor, represented the applicant, whose case was that on the night in question a stone was thrown through her window and broken.

His Honor gave a decree for £32.

The Athea Co-operative Creamery, Ltd, applied for £60, and were awarded £23 10s for the wilful destruction of belting in the creamery on the 23rd December.

Mr R Cussen, solr, appeared for the applicants.

THE LATE LIEUT-COLONEL S DeC O'GRADY.

The death took place in the Military Hospital, Malta, on December 23rd, 1920, of Lieut-Colonel Standish deCourcy O'Grady, C.M.G., D.S.O., M.B. Royal Army Medical Corps, aged 48. The eldest surviving son of the late Captain S deC O'Grady, Shanacloon, Castleconnell, Co Limerick, and grandson of The O'Grady (Gerald), Kilballyowen, Co Limerick, he was educated at Tonbridge School and Trinity College, Dublin, and served through the first Somaliland Campaign, and was in France and Belgium, 1914-1918. He was several times mentioned in despatches, receiving the C.M.G., D.S.O., and Belgian Croix Cinque. Colonel O'Grady was serving in Constantinople when he was taken ill in September, and moved to Malta the end of November. He married in 1911 Esther, only child of the late Colonel P D Vigora, of Hollofan, Co Carlow, who survives him with three children, the eldest, Gerald, being born in 1912.

The funeral took place on December 27th at Pieta Cemetery with full military honours. The pall-bearers were—Col G S McLoughlin, C.M.G., D.S.O., A.M.S; Lt-Col H B Roberts, O.B.E., R.A.; Lt-Col H J Hopkins, R.E; Lt-Col F W Woodward, D.S.O., 1/L.N.L. Regt; Lt-Col W Steele, C.M.G., R.A.M.C; Lt-Col A Vella, O.B.E., R.M.A.

Beautiful wreaths were sent by H. E. the Governor and Lady Plumer, Col McLoughlin and the officers R.A.M.C, the officers Malta Garrison, Col and Mrs Froher, Mrs Greenall, and the Nursing Staff, Military Hospital, Malta.

LORD MAYOR OF CORK TO BE DEPORTED.

It is now learned, says a Washington telegram, and allowed the full amount.

Mrs Marshall, proprietress of the C Ennis, claimed £2,000 for personal injuries sustained by her motor car running in the road while going from Limerick

Her evidence was that she sustained scalp wounds, her nose was broken and laid up for some weeks, and unable to carry on her business. Surgeon McArdle removed a portion of the bone from her nose. She was attended by Dr J B MacClancy, Ennis.

His Honor allowed £400, with 3 months' medical expenses.

James Mann, chauffeur, claimed £100 for damages on the same occasion, and £103, with £2 expenses.

Mrs Marshall had a second claim for the loss of her car and certain articles on the same occasion.

Applicant gave evidence that she lost her car for £520. It was wrecked, and a number of articles on the car at the time she lost—clothing, case of white flannel, etc.

His Honor allowed £700.

THE CAHIRGUILLAMORE PRISONERS

The announcement that some Cahirguillamore prisoners, sentenced to be shot by a military court, were reprieved from Limerick prison was premature. The matter of the establishment to which the prisoners is under consideration, nothing definite has been decided.

A further development with Cahirguillamore prisoners occurred this evening. The vessel steamed up the river to Cahirguillamore and in the evening embarked a number of prisoners. Those convicted by a military court in the Cahirguillamore district on the night of the 1st inst. There were some 58 prisoners on board. Those sentenced to penal servitude were reprieved. The vessel did not transport any force of military and police were present.

ARMS AND AMMUNITION FOUND IN CORK.

Beyond Victoria Cross, Cork, the police found four rifles, seven double-barrel and four single-barrel shotguns, 350 rounds of rifle ammunition, 350 rounds of gun ammunition, tin helmets, a quantity of powder, rifle and other military equipment.

About three miles from Queensboro, the military found a considerable quantity of shotguns, boxes of ammunition, and cotton.