

KLOW J.P., SHOT DEAD.

Isly Wounded,

London message says:—An English and masked men in County Kerry hours of yesterday morning shot a justice of the peace. It is stated that two armed men entered the house of Mr Robert Klow in town and demanded money. He offered, and Mr Dixon was in James seriously wounded.

INTO CITY LICENSED PREMISES.

At 10 o'clock on Tuesday night a licensed shop in one of the streets of the city. The shot was fired through the door, and at the time there were several persons on the premises, one of whom was wounded in the left arm. It was a serious character and was reported to the police.

FISHERY BOARD.

Mr. S. J. O'Leary, solicitor, presided at the meeting of the Limerick Fishery Conservators which were also present—Messrs R. R. J. J. Adams, with Mr H. B. Adams confined to correspondence and observation on the tributaries, and to make payments for this purpose. The meeting adjourned.

COMMISSIONER HOLMES

The late Divisional Commissioner of the Castleisland (Co Kerry) took place on Tuesday in the city, Dublin. A large number of other Crown forces were present.

A full murder against some persons was decided by the court of enquiry which was held at the Divisional Commissioner's office.

FOOD SUPPLY.

The increase in food prices has not been so great in some instances, at least. On Tuesday the price of a dozen of the constructive, and, as Mr Douglas said, making it replace the destruction that prevailed. Their work would be that constructive work which would have an element of hope set before the people.

DEATH SENTENCE.

Kerry Civilian Shot.

The following was published yesterday:—
OFFICIAL NOTICE.

Cornelius Murphy, of Ballydaly, Rathmore, Co Kerry, farmer, was tried at Cork on 17th January, 1921, by a military court for offences against martial law.

He was charged with being, at Ballydaly aforesaid, on 4th January, 1921, in improper possession of arms and ammunition, namely, a loaded revolver.

The Court found Cornelius Murphy guilty and sentenced him to suffer death by being shot.

The finding and sentence of the court were duly confirmed by the General Officer, Commanding-in-Chief in Ireland.

The sentence was duly executed at 08.01 hours on 1st February, 1921.

DEATH OF MISS ESSIE VOKES.

Very many friends in the city have heard with deep sorrow of the unexpected death of Miss Essie Vokes, which occurred yesterday morning at her residence, 12 Alphonsus Place, Henry-street, after a couple of weeks' illness. For several years past Miss Vokes, who belonged to an old Limerick family, was a member of the clerical staff of Messrs Christy, coach-builders and motor establishment, O'Connell-street, and her very bright and courteous manner made her most popular in business and social life. Sincere sympathy is expressed with her relatives in their bereavement. The funeral is announced to leave for the family burial place at Mungret to-morrow at eleven o'clock.

SEARCHES IN CLARE.

Police and military made searches yesterday in the Glenwood district, the scene of the recent ambush and shooting of District Inspector Clarke and others of a police party. Many houses, it is stated, were entered, and inmates interrogated.

DUBLIN COURTMARTIAL.

Four men were charged before a general court-martial in Dublin on Tuesday with the murder of Captain Baggallay in a house in Baggot street on November 21st. One of the prisoners named Tobin was discharged.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.

Harmony House, Harmony Row, Ennis, the other members present and Mr Stephen Ma FINANCIAL

In reply to the G
the following letter
"Clare"

"DEAR SIR,—In much regret to say disposal at the present being made such as I will, however County Council at Faithfully yours,

"The Union Cler
Chairman—Read.
ACK.

The following let
"Ocean Vie

"DEAR MR KELLY
my family and mys
to the members of kind resolution of of our dear boy. A very kind expressio
P. J. SHANAHAN."
The Chairman—
our minutes.

THE
Mr Roughan, Re
this was the third
the poor receiving Guardians should names of those re
books, and for reli
Mr Madigan en relief came to?

The Assistant C
The Chairman—
have money next
The Assistant approached.

Mr Madigan—
Chairman—Yes.
The Assistant C
Manager of the N
tion was adopte
relieving officers'

A deputation of viewed the Bank Kelly said the would communicate tell them at their would be able to

Mr Roughan—de Paul there Kilrush. They d
funds at their dis
Mr Considine, people got a good places the poor w
Mr Moloney se
with the Guardia
Council, who collec