FUNERAL OF MISS E VOKES.

Amidst numerous manifestations of sorrow and sympathy the remains of the late Miss Essie Vokes were laid to rest in the family vault at Mungret yesterday. Although the weather was abnormally severe, a goodly number assembled to pay their last sympathetic tribute of respect to one who was so popular in the city. Amongst them were—Messrs Christy (5) and Mrs Christy, their entire staff, Miss A Jordan, S Jordan, Mr, Mrs and Miss Daisy Waugh, G Smith (Breake), W B Smith, Jas Emyth (Adare), Mr Cohoun, Messrs Pyper (4), Mr Mullholland, etc., etc.

The clergy present were—The Rev Canon Swain, who officiated at the house and also at the graveside, and Rev R J Elliott (Methodist Chur.h).

The following wreaths were sent—"Her sorrowing mother and sisters," "Her little Sunday School scholar (Molly Fankner)," Mr and Mrs Christy and family, Miss Amy Jordan, The Employees of Messrs Christy, Mr and Mrs Waugh, Miss Waugh, Mrs Scott (Dublin), Misses Kathleen and Releé Sullivan, The Misses Jordan (Ida, Lily, Rose, and Violet), Mr and Mrs Campbell, Mrs Pyper and family and Clarrie, Miss Martin and sisters, Mr M Burke, "Ethel."

THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

Special Weekly Sale of Incalf Heifers and Dairy Cows.

Tuesday, February 1st—The opening sale for the season was held on last Tuesday, with an entry of 70. The recent drop in fairs was reflected in trade, buyers unwilling to meet vendors who held for highest rates; business was accordingly slow and quiet. Useful heifers with condition and quality changed hands; extra £44 to £47; choice, £35 to £43; useful, £30 to £34 10s; small £26 to £29 10s.
