

CLIMATE.

well illustrates the the most part, if not the present than the weather brings home ly lives. Here in n is but too often y by the excessive tic changes of tem- ho do not make the as a special study will gain say that at times dds to the gloom of o plentiful supply of comfort to everybody as to be utilised, if s which the weather ly produce. Happily nsely in the present feel the situation as it is so fretfully. ve not the equable ries, winter time in numbered, can never uch less comforting the season which se attends it, is more sunshine than in our tries give amends in y from the disasters et those that are l lands than ours, ve our being. It is be discontented with chattels, and where span of life in seeing farmer, Mount Catherine, Newpallas; Mr Carroll, farmer; Mr Mackey, farmer, Dromkeen; Mrs James Hayes, Ballinacugh, Kiltelly.

Over a hundred men, commanded in the neighbouring village of Kiltelly, were marched four deep to the scene under an armed escort. Here they were spectators of the fire. The out-houses were left unharmed, while a barn contain- ing about twenty tons of hay was not touched.

FUNERALS OF CONSTABLES J BOURKE AND W KINGSTON.

On Sunday the remains of the late Constable John Bourke, a native of Co Clare, and Constable William Kingston, London, who were killed in the ambush near Dromkeen on Thursday last were interred in Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. The coffins containing the remains rested overnight in St Michael's Parochial Church, and full military honours were accorded to the deceased. The band of the Oxford and Buckingham Regiment attended and played the "Dead March in Saul" and Chopin's funeral march. There was a large attendance of police in the cortege, as well as friends of the deceased. On the route to the cemetery from the church people in the side walks observed due reverence for the dead, and both coffins were covered with the Union Jack and wreaths. The chief mourners at the late Constable Bourke's funeral were the mother, two brothers, and sister. The relatives of the late Constable Kingston, who was of Irish parentage, were unable to be present at the interment.

The officiating clergy were Rev Father Dwane, Adm, St Michael's; Rev Fr Carroll, C.C. do; and Rev Fr Francis, O.F.M.

In the cortege were—Major Prescott, Commissioner of Police; County Inspector Regan, District Inspectors Greally, Sanson, McMahon, and Roddy, as well as Constable Cocks, who with District Inspector Sanson was the only survivor of the fatal ambush.

At the close of the burial service a party of police fired a volley over the graves, which are side by side, and the "Last Post" was sounded by military buglers.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.

A Memorial Service for the constabulary and military recently shot in the Cratloe district was held this morning at St Mary's Cathedral. Contingents representing the police and troops in garrison were among the congregation, and the band of the Oxford and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry attended the service, which was largely choral. The service opened with the hymn, "Jesus, lover of my soul," Mr F. Muspratt presiding at the organ, and the band accompanying. The 23rd Psalm, "The Lord is my shepherd," sung by the choir, followed, and an address was given by the Dean. The hymn "Nearer my then sprinkled petrol on the stairs and set One of the men then said names of the men who are spare your house." She dozen in the parish, ex would give names.

Applicant said that he wall and told to hold up his house burning.

His Honor allowed £2,6

Pat Torpey, Clogher, £1,054 for the burning of Mr O'Loughlin was allow of hay and killing of stock of the ambush.

Margaret Brennan was burned at Inagh.

Anthony Barry was allow on the same occasion at L

Thomas Doherty was burned at Moanreel on the

Maurice Mullins, Moanreel for hay burned on the sam

John Mullins, of same pl for hay burned.

John Mee was allowed £ hay.

Thomas Magner was a burning at Moanreel.

Thomas Hogan was allo stroyed.

Pat Ryane was allowed a lay on the same occasion.

Pat Callinan was allow his house and furniture by on the same occasion.

John Kenneally was alle claim.

John Looney (Dan) was burning of hay at the same

Michael Brennan, Callina for the burning of his house

Judge Bodkin and Claim

At the Quarter Sessions Judge Bodkin referred to the Quarter Sessions for that from that bench he nounce murder and outrage mitted, and he had again to of the murder of policeman, vast majority of the pec sympathy with those orin other cases that came befor tary intimated in Parliam proved that criminal injur Government forces he wou priety of having compe Treasury. He had felt it port. His Honor then read he stated that there wer claims for injury amounting and in a very large numbe these injuries had been o