OBITUARY.

DR. J. H. LEE.

We regret to record the death of an old and highly esteemed citizen, Dr. J. H. Lee, which took place at his residence, Dispensary House, Lower Gerald Griffin Street yesterday, after an illness of some duration. For a long span of years Dr. Lee was Compounder at the City Dispensary, and also held a similar position in connection with the Limerick District Lunatic Asylum. In professional circles he was held in very high regard, and his unvarying courtesy, too, made him very popular with the poor, in whose welfare he ever took a sympathetic interest. He was an old and valued member of the St Vincent de Paul Society.
Deep sympathy is expressed with his widow and relatives in their bereavement. The funeral took place at 11 o'clock this morning from St John's Cathedral for Mount St Laurence Cemetery, and was attended by many friends of the deceased gentleman.

MR. M. SHEAHAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mr Michael Sheahan, which occurred at his residence, Lower Mallow street, last night. The deceased gentleman had been ailing for some time, and his demise has removed from the commercial life of Limerick an upright and enterprising citizen. For a number of years he carried on business in Henry street as a ha, merchant, and his connections in this respect were of an extensive character. Among a wide circle of friends his death will be keenly regretted, and the utmost sympathy will be extended to his family in their sorrow. The remains will be removed to St Michael's Catholic Church at half-past seven this evening, and the funeral will take place at half-past one to-morrow for Mount St Lawrence Cemetery.

MRS. BRIDGET O'DEA.

A wide circle of friends in Limerick and Clare have heard with very sincere regret of the death of Mrs Bridget O'Dea, which took place on the 8th instant, at her daughter's residence, Upper Henry Street, Kilrush. Deceased, who had attained an advanced age, was a daughter of the late Mr James Breen, Moyada, Kilrush and Annagh, House, Miltown Malbay, and mother of Mrs George O'Dea, Limerick. She was a very popular and charitable lady, and there is deep sympathy with her respected family in their bereavement.
