"THE EVER-OPEN DOOR" AT THE ATHENÆUM.

The film version of Geo R Sims' famous drama will be shown at the above hall for the first three days of the coming week. This picture teems with action, and incident follows on incident, so that there is not a dull moment from start to finish. We understand that the management have an extra attractive programme for the end of the week. Full particulars will be advertised in Tuesday's issue.

RAILWAY PASSENGERS SEARCHED.

The authorities appear to have organised a regular system of railway passenger searching. Yesterday the incoming train from Killaloe to Limerick was held up at Killonan, while an organised search of the passengers was made, male and female. Women were employed to search the female passengers. Searches were, after this manner, made also yesterday on West Clare and Kerry trains to Limerick. It does not seem that any arrests took place.

RAIDS ON MAIL CARS, GOVERNMENT WARNING.

In reporting a number of raids on mail cars in country districts, Dublin Castle says that "the authorities, in conformity with the warning published some weeks ago, will have no alternative in the event of farther outrages of the kind taking place but to place further restrictions on the postal services served by mail routes interfered with in this way."

DEATH OF MR T LILLIS.

We announce with regret the death of Mr Thomas Lillis, which occurred at his residence, Glenanaar, (Clare View Terrace this morning. The deceased had not been in the best of health for some time past, so that his death was not unexpected. He was for a long number of years on the clerical staff of Messrs Cannock & Co, of which firm he was also a shareholder. He was held in high esteem by his colleagues and the directors of Cannock & Co, as well as by a large circle of friends who regret his premature demise, and tender sympathy to his widow in her affliction. The remains will be removed to St Michael's Parochial Church at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening, and the funeral will take place at 3 pm, on Monday for Mount St Laurence Cemetery.
