The evidence for the prosecution was that the belt and ammunition were found in the accused's garden attached to the house by a party of military and police. The house was the property of the accused's father, and the belt was left behind by a brother of Dware's when on furlough from the army. The accused was not present when the ammunition was got, and he denied all knowledge of the ammunition.

The Court acquitted the prisoner, who was discharged.

FUNERAL OF MISS PRISCILLA BECKETT.

The remains of Miss Priscilla Beckett, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Beckett, Frederick-street, were removed this morning from No. 1 Victoria Terrace, the residence of her grandfather, for interment at St Mary's Cemetery. The cortege was large and representative, and testified to the sympathy which is extended to the family in the loss of one whose bright and genial manner endeared her to all who knew her.

The chief mourners were—Mr W Beckett (father), Mr W J Beckett (brother), Mr W Thompson (grandfather), Miss Thompson (aunt of the deceased), the Misses Jordan and Miss Thomas (friends).

The clergy present were—Rev A W Neill, Presbyterian Church; Very Rev the Dean of Limerick, and Canon Swain.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs Welply, Wilkinson, Barnett, Goodwin, Dunn, Waters, Hayes, Tubridy, McIntyre, King, Malligan, Millar, Reidy, Nolan (Town Clerk), Gurrin, Bruce, Owens, Fitzgibbon, McNeice, Kelly, Corbett, Keating, Fitzgibbon, Foley, Curson, Ellis, Enright, etc.

The following sent wreaths:—"From the dear ones at home," "From a grandfather and Auntie Beck," "My dearly loved one, from your own Arthur," "Much love, from Annie and Maud," "In loving remembrance, from Ivah and Amy," "In loving remembrance, from Belle and Alec," "With love and fond remembrance, from Jennie," "Deep sympathy, from George," "Deepest sympathy, from Matilda, Annie, and Lilly Rowand," "Loving remembrance, from Mary Lewis"

The Rev A W Neill officiated.
