

Limerick, an appeal has been made to the citizens to support home, and, where possible, local manufacture.

An electric light distributing pillar at the corner of Gwentworth-street and O'Connell-street was accidentally knocked down by a military lorry last evening, with the result that lighting in the locality was dislocated for some time. The matter was rectified by the electric lighting staff as quickly as possible.

In rowing circles sincere regret is felt at the death of Mr T Keane, well known as "cox" for Arthlunkard Boat Club crews. He was an amiable young man, and had numerous friends, who now deeply mourn his early demise, which took place at his father's residence, Wickham street, on Tuesday, after a short illness.

VACANT SEE OF LIMERICK AND ARDFERT.

The See of Limerick, Ardfert, and Aghadoe has now become vacant through the resignation of the Right Rev Dr Orpen, and the Archbishop of Dublin, having spiritual jurisdiction over the vacant dioceses, has appointed the Dean of Limerick to be his commissary for the Diocese of Limerick, and the Archdeacon of Ardfert to be commissary for Ardfert and Aghadoe, during the vacancy.

DEATH OF MR M H SHEEHY, SHANNONGROVE.

A wide circle of friends in the County of Limerick and elsewhere have learned with deep regret of the death of Mr Michael H Sheehy, son of the late Mr John Sheehy, Coroner for County Limerick, Shannongrove, Pallaskenry, which occurred on Tuesday from pneumonia after only two days' illness. He was well known in courting circles, was a member of County Limerick Courting Club, and took a deep interest in Irish Cup contests. Personally, he was immensely popular, his genial manner and abounding good nature winning hosts of friends, who join in regret at his death and in sympathy with the members of his family in their bereavement. The funeral will take place from the Parish Church to-morrow (Friday) at one o'clock.
