MANAGING DIRECTOR SHOT DEAD IN YOUGHAL.

Mr John Cathcart, managing director, Pasley and Co, Ltd, was shot dead in his house at P. arce's Square, Youghal, yesterday morning by armed raiders, who entered forcibly at the back. An envelope, inscribed: "Convicted spy—Spies and informers beware—I R.A." was found near the body.

Mr Cathcart was a most successful, unassuming and courteous business man, who took no part in political matters.

This crime, perpetrated on Good Friday, has shocked the whole community. Much police activity prevailed since the occurrence.

Mr Cathcart leaves three motherless children and an aged mother.

DEATH OF A LIMERICK CLERGYMAN ABROAD.

We regret to observe the announcement of the death of the Rev William Harris Winter, B A, B D, T: C. D, eldest son of the late Mr Samuel K Winter, of Molug House, Caherconlish, Co Limerick, which took place at the Rectory, Glen Omond, Adelside, Australia, on 3rd February, in the 61st year of his age. In a high tribute to the d ceased (which we hold over to a future issue) the Ad. laide "Advertiser" says the rev. gentleman had been in ill-health for some time, and th- en- was not unexpected. During his residence in the State his distinguished scholastic and literary attainments won for him admiration. He was a frequent contributor of poems and other compositions to Irish and English newspapers.

EXTREME NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Sleepless and Dyspeptic. Soon Cured By Dr Cassell's Tablets.

Mr E H Carr, 173, Dawlish Road, Leyton, London, E 10, says:—"The strain of five years with the colours I suppose told on me, for just before being demobilised I began to feel run-down and nervous. This grew worse when I came home, at a last I was only a nervous wreck. Sometimes I could hardly keep still, and always I was ready to jump at a sound. Headaches bothered me a good deal and my sleep was disturbed. After food wind formed, and there was pain, too, sometimes before I had even
