there was a great difference between day and night working at the Power station.

Mr O'Flynn said it was stated at last meeting that some consumers were getting current for 9d per unit. He had made inquiries and found that that was not so. Nobody was getting current for lighting at less than a shilling.

It was ultimately agreed to ask the Corporation to reconsider the matter with a view to making a further reduction in cost of current.

EMPLOYERS' HOLIDAYS.

A letter was read from the dock weighmasters and dock gatemen applying for a fortnight's holidays same as was given to the tradesmen employed by the Board.

Alderman Walsh—Do the tradesmen get a fortnight's wages?

The Engineer—Yes.

Mr Cleeve thought the matter was one for the Finance Committee to deal with, and he suggested that it be referred to them for a report.

This was agreed to.

PORT NEWS.

The Secretary reported that one overseas vessel five regular traders, and one coasting vessel arrived in port since last meeting.

CITY DROWNING MYSTERY.

The remains of the woman found drowned in the Shannon, above the Limerick Distillery, on Saturday evening last were removed from the morgue at 5 o'clock last evening by the relieving officer of the dispensary district in which they were found. They were subsequently interred in the Union Cemetery, being still unidentified.
This morning a well dressed man, who did not give his name, called at Barrington's Hospital to see the body, but was told it had been removed.
