

which employ a large number of hands, and could employ still more were trade brisker, as it might well be if the motto "Support Home Industry" were better observed than it apparently is. Printing orders can be handled in Limerick as artistically, as cheaply, and expeditiously as elsewhere, and it should be the interest of all concerned to place them at home and thus provide steady employment for a most deserving body of skilled hands in the printing trade, several of whom are, we regret to notice, unemployed just now. We feel assured, however, now that attention has been called to the matter, that traders and all others who are in a position to do so will generally give practical and timely response to the request of the Typographical Society for more work in the city where they live and spend their means of livelihood.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

We must ask the indulgence of numerous subscribers, who, owing to the suspension of the outgoing night mail from Limerick, as a result of the coal crisis, cannot receive their paper on the morning following the issue of the CHRONICLE. We trust the inconvenience will be but temporary.

DEATH OF MR JAMES JOYNT.

We regret to announce the death of Mr James Joynt, which took place yesterday morning at his residence, 33 Frederick street, after a prolonged illness. The sad event was, therefore, not unexpected, but has been heard of with sincere sorrow by numerous friends in city and county. Mr Joynt was the eldest son of the late Mr Hugh Perse Joynt, of this city, and possessed of a very kindly and retiring manner he was ever held in the highest esteem and regard by all who knew him. There is sincere sympathy with his family in their bereavement. Funerals to-morrow (Friday) at 9.30 for St Mynoghin's.

enacted.

The stall-holders were E F Conyers (tea); Mrs Ormsby Ryan (Cakes and O'Brien and Miss E O'Brien Mrs T de C Studdert (Toys (Bancy and Plain Goods).

The tennis tournament Sale will take place on Sa

COMMANDEER COUNTY L

A large number of men who attended Drombanna yesterday morning with military and police. T Annasotty to repair Mulcaire River, which up early on Saturday mor

MILITARY COURT JURISDICTION

On Tuesday evening Ryan and Jones, from the arrested by Crown forces, were, it would appear, told of their refusal to comply with the authorities, and which had led to their obstruction on the road at a Military Court of Sessions in the Strand Barracks charged with not complying. In reply the defendants were not conformed to because competent military authorities sentenced to fourteen day

A proposal to make a disputes compulsory was putative and Socialist to 40 Norwegian Odelsting.