

...Channel and
met. The agi-
charges to be
bring to Irish
if, but assur-ly
of more public
at least, are not
the betterment
and Chambers
labouring, and
ineffectually, for

MYSTERY.

...of an unknown
iver Shannon, near
ho were fishing in
The remains were
years of age or so.
tion. They were
in Fire Brigade
rington's Hospital,
ntity have so far
enquiry in lieu of
row at the New
h.

RIGHT.

...orde.
Manor of St John,
mentioned among
hday Honours, is
R. and H. H. H., ublin, Belfast, and
ctor of the Great
way, Ireland, etc;
nission on Wheat
ler of the Landed
acting under the
Supplies, and com-
plices held in the Ireland of the
ra's Associations
g the war in an
representing Irish
a supply of essen-
necessitating his
during a period
with considerable
at his only son is

BALLYSIMON.

...and a labourer

at the southern end of George's street, was destroyed. The interior of the building, including magistrates' room, clerk's office, all the woodwork, galleries, bench, etc, were completely burned, nothing remaining but the bare walls. The annual Quarter Sessions were to be held here on this day week.

An official report states:—At 12.30 a.m to-day Clonakilty Courthouse set on fire by rebels. The building was completely destroyed.

PROPOSED MEMORIAL TO DECEASED SOLDIERS AND POLICE.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Major Kelley asked the Prime Minister whether he would ask Parliament to authorise the erection of a national memorial to the soldiers and police killed by rebels in Ireland?

Mr A Chamberlain replied that he much appreciated the spirit which prompted the question, and the suggestion should be considered at the proper time.

Sir H Greenwood informed Capt Wedgwood Benn that the number of soldiers killed in Ireland since January, 1920, was 127 and 246 wounded.

THE LATE MISS O'GRADY, RATHFREDAGH

The funeral took place at Rathfredagh, Newcastle, on Tuesday, 3rd June, of Miss Ada K. O'Grady, to the family burial place, Knockan. It was very largely attended. Wreaths were sent from the following:—“Ever-loving memory, from Joe and Dick—“Not forgotten”; “In ever-loving memory of dear Ada, from Eileen and Fin”; “With deep sympathy, from Rishbell Curling”; “With deepest regret, in loving memory, from Sophie and Tom Atkinson”; “A last tribute of love, from the Employees”; “In affectionate remembrance of our dear friend, Miss O'Grady, from P. G. and Liuda Sweeny, the Rectory”; “In loving remembrance, from all at St D. Walda”; “To dear Ada, with loving sympathy, from all at Heathfield”

THE COAL SUPPLY.

Two cargoes of Continental coal have arrived in port—one from Belgium and the other from Dunkirk. The latter is stated to be some of the German coal received in France in part payment of the war indemnity.

THE COAL STOPPAGE.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Philip Lloyd Gamm, answering Mr Leonard Lyle, said he was afraid a large number of opportunities for trade had been lost to this country owing to the stoppage of industries, due to the coal crisis.

Yesterday afternoon, at of the late Mrs Anna Colivet St Murehin's Catholic Church Mount St Laurence Commemorative evening the coffin containing the remains of the late Mrs Anna Colivet, transferred from the residence, Castle View Terrace, to Requiem Mass was celebrated. The day was large and represents a tribute of respect to the memory and of sympathy with her family. Mr Colivet, who was arrested and who is interned, was not present at the funeral obsequies.

The chief mourners were (brother); Mr M. Punch (brothers-in-law); Mrs Pearl M Hartigan, and Miss Thea Misses Colivet (sisters-in-law (cousin).

The clergy present were: O'Driscoll, P.P., V.F., St. Halpin, C.C., and Rev Fr McCanon O'Driscoll officiated.

At a special meeting of the I last night, Alderman Mrs (locum tenens) presiding, the was proposed by Mr O'Dw silence—“That this Council sincere sympathy and condolence to the family of the late Mrs Colivet, T.D., at present interned at Spike Island, on the tragic death of his wife, and expresses surprise that the Authorities refuse to place his home on parole, either for seeing his dying wife, or for to her in death.”

A copy of the resolution was forwarded to Mr Colivet, and the deceased's family.

THE LATE MR THOMAS MR P WHITE

At a specially convened meeting of the Corporation last night, Alderman Major locum tenens, presiding, passed unanimously and in a most and heartfelt sympathy with the relatives of the late Mr Thomas White, who died on Saturday morning, 4th June, in possession of arms, and also with the family of Mr Patrick White, Meelick, who is interned at Spike Island.

COAL DISPLEASANT

Government

The “Daily Chronicle,” in its criticism of the Government's offer is one of the most pertinent put before the miners themselves. The Government has not yet been taken, but without