the the taskoff wnh. I the introof Canadian stores must have the diminishing the demand for homemals, and the result would be that resers would turn their attention to other than cattle breeding. reduction in the number of homeres would be the consequence, and er became necessary to re-impose ons on import, Great Britain would ir be able to look to Ireland as she very largely during the late war for t supplies. As Mr Gill so well put the past British feeders had found an unfailing reservoir of store nd there was no reason why in the hey should not continue to do so, existing conditions were not seriously dis-And he explained that the shortage of cattle is largely the outwar conditions, and that there are ations that this condition of things is e than temporary. This is also the of Colonel O Callaghan-Westropp, of the witnesses examined, who t the causes of the chortage will ir effect in two years time. the "family help" in very numerous tables cattle to be regred at a very cost, and it was shown by Mr Gill existing restrictions have encouraged ment in cattle-breeding. A change xisting conditions would, therefore, ons not only to Ideland but to as well, and as to cheapening the meat by 6d a pound as a result of a importation, Mr Gill believes that ement could not be substantiated. is as a contemporary says, "whichvocating the removal of the embargo y intend to make, is that Ireland monoply of the store cattle industry,

· 1 _ Li _ 2 . _ 41 _

Recently, on one consion, a prisoner was granted permission to go home to visit a relative who was dangerously ill. He gave his parole in writing, but he broke it, and he had not been seen or heard of since. It is an almost uniteard of thing for a man granted parole to break his parole or word of honour, and under the discumstances the military authorities had no option but to be rejuctantly compelled to refuse to grant Mr Colivet, or any other prisoner, parole.

COURTMARTIAL RESULTS.

Clare Priests Sentenced.

Septences issued on Tuesday from the Military G.H.-2 Parkgate street, Dublin, include the following:

Rev P Gaynor and Rev M MacKenna, Mullagh, Co Clare, tried by Field General Courtmartial. On April 4, the house occupied by both accused was searched. In a sitting room two documents were found: No 1—Renouncing the protection of the English Government and "placing our homes and curselves under the protection of responsible authorities of I. R. Government." No 2 document was entitled "Judiciary," and purporting to relate to Dail Kircann. Father Gaynor admitted responsibility for document No 2, but did not believe that No 1 was in the house.

Father MacKenna made no statement.

They were sentenced to six months imprisonment without hard labour each.

SHANNON DROWNING FATALITY.

Evidence at Military Inquiry.

A military inquiry, in lieu of an inquest, was held at the New Barrecks yesterday, in connection with the death of a man named John Thrawne, who was found in the River Shannon at Plassy on Sunday.

A civilian witness gave evidence of identification. He stated that the deceased was 45 years of age, and unmarried, and lived near Newport.

Evidence of the finding of the body, which was in a decomposed state, was given by another civilian witness. The body, af er being taken from the river, was conveyed to the morgue of Barrington's Hospital.

A medical certificate as to the cause of death having been handed in, and from which it transpired that death was due to drowning, the enquiry closed, and the finding will be promulgated.

OUTRAGE IN WEST LIMERICK.

A Dublin Castle report says:—A gentleman living in Dromcollogher was motoring to his home from Charleville a few afternoons ago when he was held up by six armed masked men. He was blind folded and taken to a field, where he was kept a prisoner until $ p. m. He was then released, and told that his car had been taken, and that it would be returned in a few weeks, provided be did not report the matter to the police.

attendant pri

herdsman, at Mr Cullina Hickman), we evidence it as taloing that lands, communited by him told by him

ented, and his
The Scorets
injury to a Ci North Clare.

It appeared which had been it, being wret atout.

Sergeant Cla time, claimed He was flung cording to as minutes on the

He was awar
Mrs Speckma
of her son, Priv Oratloe. Au
through engine Robbins were attack was ma Speckman was in the Military

His Honor as The Secreta injuries to the range at Bally:

Mrs Morice her son, Consti ambush at Gle occasion severs spector Clarke,

IMPORT

Evidence

Colonel W. of the Clare Fa before the Roy of store cattle that he was of sattle at the r were temporary in two years. of 1896 they ha west of the Riv fine, big, well-s was found that Irish cattle o Canadian rattle deal of discours the farmers as: from foreign s plained that he