

out the withdrawal of Channel passenger traffic with the cessation of the must necessarily involve. or, from Mr Kellaway's proposed that the collection be made late on Sunday Monday morning so as to take place by first post on No decision with regard to has yet been come to al arrangement is to be patch at stated hours on letters addressed either to mber of the larger cities. will benefit by this arrange- be seen. Dublin and the list of selected offices. and Limerick as well? are likely to ensue new departure, viz. of a Post Office Council- ness men. The views of ould tend to increased Post Office and tend also to and requirements of the ty. Mr Kellaway reckons al charges which come into row will yield two-and-a- the abolition of the Sunday nother million. With these millions he hopes to make a way. One of the members debate however, had his her the increased income e realised. Time of course as the "Times" remark- opeful phrases there was rt to be drawn from the al's speech." Certain it is

The Limerick Steamship Co, Ltd, Limerick, General Passenger Agents for the above Company in Ireland, write us to say that the report which appeared in the Press a few days ago with regard to the fire on this vessel was exaggerated. The fire was of very small dimensions, affecting the officer's cabins and a portion of the bridge only. This vessel will, therefore, leave on the date advertised, and the original sailing programme arranged will not be altered in the slightest degree.

KILKEE.

The beautiful Summer weather that has now set in turns one's thoughts to the holiday season and to Kilkee, that highly popular resort for Limerick people. A correspondent informs us that all the hotels and lodging houses are ready for occupation, and the only drawback is inadequate facilities for travel, but these, there is little doubt, will improve with the settlement of the coal trouble. Needless to say the "Brighton of the West," with its splendid health-giving qualities and its fine cliff scenery, is an ideal place to spend a holiday, and it is to be hoped that the season about to commence will be as successful as previous ones have been.

CO LIMERICK TRAGEDY.

Sir H Greenwood told Sir W Barton in the House of Commons on Thursday that a court of inquiry found that the death of Patrick O'Brien at Co. Cappagh, Co Limerick, on 2nd May, was due to shock, hemorrhage, and exposure following injuries received by misadventure, probably caused by falling into a trench.

RATHKEALE QUARTER SESSIONS.

His Honor County Court Judge Pigot opened the business of Rathkeale Quarter Sessions at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in the County Crown Court. The business was confined to the hearing of undefended civil bills and a few unimportant ejectment suits.

DEATH OF CANON GLYNN, KILKEE.

In Limerick deep regret is expressed at the announcement of the death of Very Rev Canon Glynn, P.P. Kilkee, which occurred on Thursday after a short illness. By the residents of Kilkee, and visitors alike, without distinction of class or creed, Canon Glynn was held in the highest esteem and regard. For very many years he had been Parish Priest of Kilkee, and was ever identified with any movement for the betterment of the town and the people, and to the poor he was a steadfast friend. Canon Glynn also did valuable work in connection with the Congested Districts Board, of which he was a member.

384; James Dob Kuright (St Michael's)

Silver Medal—St Book Prizes—B. Olive Greene (Trinity), 437; Charlie McGeeling (Trinity), 420; 409; Hilda Orms Oakley (Trinity), 2

Silver Medal—Li Book Prizes—J. Jack Ormston (Trinity), 39; 386; Tom Auchmuty (Trinity), 372; Eileen Coopey (Trinity), 361; Evangeline R. Mabel Wiseman (Trinity) 321; Edw

Silver Medals—Cl Marion Thompson (Book Prizes—Jul 385; Violet Pater Boyd (Trinity), 375; Isabella Bingham (Trinity), 367; Muriel Patricia Swain (St Trinity), 357; Gae Mabel Mercer (Trinity), 336; Ethel Adrian Baldwin (Nelson Trinity), 323; Tom Tripp Daly (St Mary's), 329; Mabel Ingh Black (St Mary's Trinity) 238; Dic

The special B be answered best in Se to Edward Thomp Egleston (Trinity), controversial Catechis have been awarded and to Susie Smith

KILKEE

UNDAY SC JUNIOR GRA First Rank—Wil INTERMEDIATE First Rank—J. Eugene Bartman, I First Rank—Joh Annie Lalor