DEATH COUNTY LIMERICK OF CLERGYMAN.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place at St John's Hospital yesterday of the Rev Gerald O'Connor, P.P. of Rockhill and Bruree The deceased clergyman was sixty-two years of age, and had been in failing health for some time past. He was for twelve years parish priest of the joint parishes of Brures and Rookhill, and was a very estimable and popular clergyman. In the early days of his missionary career he laboured in St Mary's Parish, Limerick, and subsequently at Bruff. For a number of years he was President of Se Mary's Temperance Society, in whose welfare he took a deep interest. Father, O'Comnor was a native of West Limeriak, and his demise is deeply regretted by his late parishioners and the diocese generally. The remains were removed at 5 o'clock this evening from St John's Hospital by road to Rockhill Parish Church, where Office and High Mass will be celebrated to-morrow at 12 o'clock. The interment will take place immediately after the service.

MILITARY FUNERAL.

Sequel to Motor Accident.

The remains of the late Private Barrington, RASC, who died from injuries received in the motor accident at Killaloe on the 17th ult, were removed from the New Barracks on Tuesday to the railway terminus, en route for Manchester, of which he was a native. The deceased, whose condition was critical from the beginning, succumbed on Monday evening. He was by occupation a turner, and was a skilled and capable mechanic. The funeral cortege on Tuesday was attended by a large muster of comrades and civilians with whom the deceased was popular. The coffin was covered with the Union Jack, and many wreaths were deposited on it by members of the corps and one from civilians employed at the New Barracks. The band of the Royal Welch Fusiliers was present and played the funeral marches, the "last post" being sounded before the 2.45 train, by which the remains travelled, left the platform for Kingstown.

DEATH OF MRS LONGFORD.

Many friends in the city have heard with regret of the death of Mrs Longford, wife of Mr E J Longford, of 7 Sydenbam Terrace, Ballinacurra, Limerick, which took place on Monday at her brother's residence in Cork, after an il ness of some duration. Her bright and winning disposition made her a favourite with all who knew her, and there is deep sympathy with her husband and two children in the irreparable loss they have sustained in the untimely demise of a loving wife
