

unemployment, will it Irish question, and the h at home and abroad. that the House will the names of the dele-attend the Conference at outh. It appears to be that the Premier will he Atlantic for the ould he decide to ot be surprising, seeing e is an event of prime ernational politics, and e of the world in the mote, may depend upon Conference was initiated y President Harding. Its o deal with the question The maintenance of arms h means a crushing burden the world. A reduction naments would set free a ould be applied to the dee and industry, and the exonomic resources of all the ed. And the present time, s so high, and trade so e to offer a favourable tackling this big question, en to find that Britain, d America, are in sympathy nd objects for which the een convened, and which will take into consider-lement of the armaments possibly have far-reaching s a London correspondent ight be the prelude to a settlement of war debts, y in exchanges and other to help the world to recover grounds of the Catholic Institute Athletic Club on Sunday evening week, when the members availed themselves of the occasion of making a presentation to Mr Dick Hartigan, late honorary secretary to the Club, on the occasion of his recent marriage.

 The President, the Rev Father J. O'Carroll, C.C, St John's, in presenting Mr Hartigan with a solid silver rose bowl, designed after the famous Ardagh Chalice, suitably engraved, said on behalf of the members he wished Mr and Mrs Hartigan a long and happy life. Continuing, he said, that it was due to Mr Hartigan's efforts that the Club was brought into being, and referred to all the work he had done during his term as secretary, that made the Club become so popular.
 Mr Hartigan, replying, thanked the Reverend President and members for this very handsome present. He said it was very gratifying to see so many of the members present, despite the inclemency of the weather. Referring at length to the growth of the Club during his nine years as secretary, he said he would always be interested in the success of the Club.
 The Secretary, Mr Humphries, referred to the Club as supplying a long-felt want for the Catholics of the city, and he was very pleased to say that the membership for the present year has constituted a record. Referring to the action of the Committee in issuing Bonds so as to purchase the grounds, he said that purchase would be completed in a very short time.
 Tea was then provided, and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

DEATH OF FATHER M. HANLY, S.J.

A feeling of regret and pain was evoked in the city on its becoming verified that a report put in circulation early in the day of the death of Rev Father M. Hanly, S.J., yesterday at Dublin, was but too true. It appears to have been the result of an accident, but the details are not available. Father Hanly was quite a young clergyman, a native of this city, and a prominent member of the distinguished Order to which he belonged. He was a sound scholar, and while on the teaching staff at Crescent College he won the regard and affection of the pupils under his charge. There will be sincere regret among all who knew the deceased young clergyman at his premature demise.

I.R.A DEPENDENTS.

Further American Grant.

Mrs Michael O'Callaghan, T.D, Limerick, has received a further sum of 1,000 dollars from Mrs McWhorter, President of the Celtic Cross Association of America, to be spent on the dependents of members of the I. R. A.

ST MUNCHIN'S PAROCHIAL CHURCH

The erection of the new Catholic Church for high office he shot diocese and its nee temporaries, a lea younger clergy, wh ad red him, for he l with the times in al A little more than Dean of this Cathe marked by unvary tact. Great Servic invariably ensured ordered, and wholly vious thought and c unseemly distractio time. He will be g himself the love an came in touch. On diocese his sage ad his absence will be we think of him as tells beyond aught far-reaching value, leaving us—a man

“God give us men.
 Great hearts, strong hands.

Men whom the Just Men who have hon
 Men who for Christ

Thank God, he l
 Church of Ireland, remotest thought o
 of all, that of a fat in very truth, and may rest assured t markable business ing love will ever b disposal. A firm conscience, prompt mercy's side, will
 That God may give and very happy on

Congratulatio

At yesterday's Synod, the Archbi
 he described as th on the approach Christ Church,
 rick withdrew fr one that was deal with dignity the cessively been ca viction was as v sympathy. In th to wish him God prayers went wit would adorn his had been so high (Applause)

Lord Glenavy,
 the Synod, bei expression of r