FUNERAL OF MRS NOLAN.

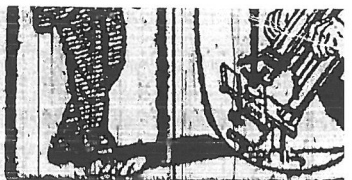

The funeral of the late Mrs James Nolan, Ballyanne, Shanagolden, took place on Sunday last from St John's Cathedral to the family burial place at Knockpatrick, Shanagolden. The deceased, who passed away in St John's Hospital on Friday, was a member of a highly respected family, and was herself a very estimable lady.
 Her demise caused deep and widespread regret, and the keenest sympathy, in which we fully share, is tendered to the bereaved relatives. High Mass for the repose of the deceased's soul was celebrated in the Cathedral on Saturday, and the funeral started at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning.
 The cortege was one of the largest and most representative seen either in city or county for many years and was a striking testimony of the widespread respect and esteem enjoyed by the deceased and her numerous relatives and connections.

Amongst the chief mourners were—Joseph and Cornelius Nolan (sons), James L Frost and John L Frost (brothers), Mrs Mulqueen, Rosbrien (sister); also, Robert, Laurence and John Frost, L Ryan, J Ryan, and J Mulqueen (nephews), P Mulqueen (brother-in-law), and W Fenton (son-in-law).

So large was the funeral that it would be absolutely impossible to give anything like a full list of those present.

COUNTY LIMERICK SHOOTING.

Mr Peter Switzer, an elderly farmer, who was fired at and wounded in the head and face while attending the funeral of his sister at Castletown, Co. Limerick, on Tuesday, is in a critical con-
