had been brought from Ireland, there was found to be a great deal of disease in Ireland, and that was not so. Up to this outbreak there was no disease in Ireland, but there was a good deal in the North of Europe.
 Asked whether the export of pedigree stock from Great Britain to Ireland would be suspended, he said the Irish Government had already taken precautions. He added that there was a sufficient inspection of cattle arriving on that side from Ireland, and no animals could be landed except for immediate slaughter.

KILKEE COURSING MEETING.

The recently established Kilkee Coursing Club has arranged to hold its first coursing meeting on the 21st February on Dr. Hickey's land on the outskirts of the town, and it promises to be a great success. Mr M J Frost has been appointed secretary, and Mr P Larkin, Treasurer.

DEATH OF SIR FRANCIS H. MAY.

The death is announced of Sir Francis H. May, G.C.M.G., LL.D., D.C.L., late Governor of Hong Kong. Born in Dublin in 1830, he was 4th son of the late Rt. Hon G. A. C. May, Lord Chief Justice of Ireland, and Olivia, 4th daughter of the late Sir Mashew Barrington, 2nd bar., Glanstal, Co.
 Limerick.

RESIGNATION OF THE SECRETARY OF THE CLARE CO. COUNCIL.

Balls, Wednesday.
 Mr F. Nauntin Studder, D.L., who has been Secretary of the Clare County Council for the last quarter of a century, having been appointed in succession to the late Mr Frank Morice, the Secretary to the Grand Jury, has resigned, and Mr M J Carey, his assistant secretary, has been appointed his successor. This is in accordance with the scale of promotions fixed some time ago by the Co Council, by which Mr George Galvin, Clerk of the Sanatorium Committee, now becomes assistant secretary.

WORKING OF THE DEPARTMENT.

Clare Co Committee of Agriculture passed a resolution welcoming Deputy O'Hagan as head of the department, and calling for an inquiry by a commission of experts into the past methods of the Department in its various branches; the best methods of securing efficiency, and bringing the Department in a close touch with the people; the methods of appointment and promotion, and the working of model farms and position of their students.

Seventy-one bull fighting clubs were represented at a congress at Lunel, near Montpellier, which resolved to defend with the utmost energy the usages and customs of Southern France and Algeria.
