

newly elected President", also dwelt on this vital question, and expressed the hope that at the earliest opportunity a Bill would be introduced for compulsory school attendance. There can be no doubt that the matter will not be lost sight of by the authorities, for to make the educational programme a success a full attendance of pupils is indispensable.

The General Synod of the Church of Ireland will be held in Dublin during the week May 8th to May 13th.

PARISH OF KILLALOE.

The Board of Nomination for the Parish of Killaloe has unanimously nominated Rev. Precentor Stanistreet, Rector of Kilmacoolagh, to the incumbency of Killaloe, vacant by the resignation of Rev. Canon Archdall.

DEATH OF MR. N. J. O'NEILL.

A wide circle of friends in Limerick and elsewhere have heard with very sincere regret of the death of Mr. Nicholas J. O'Neill, which took place at his residence "Innisfail," O'Connell Avenue, on Tuesday night, after a comparatively short illness. Mr. O'Neill, who for over twenty years was a buyer in the linen department of Messrs. Todd and Co., was well and popularly known as an excellent business man, and of a very kindly and genial disposition. His demise in the prime of life is very sincerely regretted, and there is deep sympathy with his widow in her bereavement. The funeral took place this morning at 10.30 after Requiem Mass at St. Michael's Parochial Church for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery and was very large and representative.

CORPORATION COMMITTEES.

The Deputy Mayor (Councillor P. A. O'Brien) presided at a meeting of the Cleansing, Repairing, and Improvement Committee of the Corporation last night. Applications for compensation were received from the G.S. & W. Railway Company, as well as local and outside firms, for the seizure of goods of Belfast manufacture. After a discussion, it having transpired that the claims did not aggregate more than £100, the Deputy Mayor was asked to interview the Director of Belfast Boycott in the city on the matter.
