

ADVERTISERS

of the earlier departure ins from Limerick, and the hour for posting to neral Post Office, it ha ry to issue the editions at an earlier hour than tisers' will, therefore, ne latest hour at which an be received at this s is 3.30 p.m. Publ ices received after that guaranteed [on that

LIMERICK CHRONICLE

PUBLISHED 1766]

MAY 4, 1922.

LET TOPICS.

get provides some relief ened taxpayer, though re not materialised. An on has been persistently ime past, and with that essions are now recom-ment. A reduction of come tax is a step that especially by the wage-nd the household will 4d. which is to be as on tea, coffee, cocoa, ion which is heartily whole community is in ostal rates, thus proving outcry against the high existence has at last had

Though there is not a conditions, a step in that sted in the proposed new three-halfpence; printed penny, and postcards

FUNERAL OF MR J. H. MORAN, SOLICITOR.

The remains of the late Mr James H. Moran, solicitor, were interred this morning in Mount St Lawrence Cemetery after Requiem High Mass in St Michael's Church. Last evening the coffin was removed from Barrington's Hospital to the Church and was followed by a large crowd of mourners. At half-past eleven to-day the funeral left for Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. The cortege was of large proportions, being representative of the legal profession, Corporation, and citizens generally, who were present to pay a final tribute of respect to one who was so well-known in the city and popular with all classes. It was a fitting expression of the sympathy felt for his relatives in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Very Rev J Moran, O.M.I, and Mr H O'B Moran, solr (sons); Mr J Moran, solr, Listowel, and Mr Joseph Moran, Foynes (brothers); Col-Commandant M Sweeney, B.E, Oughterard (son-in-law); Dr J Moran (nephew); Mr J J Power, solr, Kilmallock, and Mr E J McDermott, Castleroa (relatives).

The clergy present were—Rev Fr Dwane, Adm, St Michael's; Rev Fr Carroll, C.C, do; Rev Fr Thornhill, C.C, do; Rev Fr Hannan, C.C, do; Rev Fr Tracey, C.C, do, and Rev Fr Fitzpatrick, C.C, do.

Among the general public were—The Deputy Mayor (Councillor P A O'Brien), J S Gaffney, C.S; P J Kelly, ex-R.M; R Nash, solr; P J O'Sullivan, solr; J P Hartigan, D W Harnett J J Delany, J J O'Malley, B.E; W M Nolan, Town Clerk; P E O'Donnell, solr; E D Hunt, solr; J Barry, Dr T K Mulcahy, Dr J Roberts, J Dodds, solr; D O'Callaghan, solr; Dr A Humphries, J Shannon, J J Quaid, Co Secretary; M Fitzgibbon, B McGann, J Leddin, J O'Mara, Dr M Graham, W G Peacocke, Dr C McDonnell, Dr M S McGrath, A Blood-Smyth, solr; E Leahy, solr; Er J Malone, A Hall, A Egan, P Dillon, P Hurley, J R Dundon, solr; L O'B Kelly, B.L; C Ebrill, solr; M Griffin, B.C; T O'B Kelly, solr; Dr J Holmes, Scariff; J J Hanratty, D Hayes, E Lloyd, J A Hennessy, B.C; J A Doyle, solr; A J Sexton, M C Burke, solr; P Coyle, G Morris, Agent Bank of Ireland; J Quin, H Blackall, solr; M Fitzgerald, Dr G Enright, Sixmile-Bridge; C H Fitt, S Tubridy, J S McNeice, M J Russell, J Gilligan, B.C; S P Moloney, B E Sheehy, B.E; J H Enright, T Prendergast, sub-Sheriff; M O'Connell, etc.

Very Rev Fr Moran officiated at the graveside.

Amongst the messages of sympathy and condolence received were telegrams from Mr Wm O'Brien, ex-M.P, Mallow; Mr J Brady, solicitor, Dublin; Mr J J Comyn, B.L, Dublin; Mr M Noyk, solicitor, Dublin, and Mr W O'B Nishon, Chartered Accountant, Dublin.

SIEGE IN K

Regular For Posit

The most exciting incident witnessed in Kilkenny City was the seizure of the workhouse, the tower of St Canice's Cathedral, the Workingmen's Club, premises opposite the rail

Regular forces began to arrive at 2 p.m. Rifles and machine-guns soon the irregular forces. Meantime, the cathedral was surrounded. At 9.30 p.m. the only building in the city and Parliament street police station, together with 100 prisoners, together with the tower, had been taken.

Simultaneously with the seizure of the buildings in Kilkenny City, the British forces out the railway and brought all traffic to a standstill.

Official

The following official statement was issued Tuesday night by the Post Office General Headquarters, Dublin.

"Early this morning the British forces from Waterford, Tipperary, and the counties moved into Kilkenny. The British forces moved into Kilkenny junction with the irregular forces at the street Police Barracks, the tower of the Workhouse, the tower of the Workingmen's Club, the Street Police Barracks, premises opposite the regular I.R.A. troops, with the Military Barracks, the tower of the tower, at once took step to remove the forces removed from the "Early in the morning the British forces were surrendered. 18 prisoners, with all the arms, were taken. Towards noon the British regular forces were still in the city. Invading forces were observed at St Canice's Cathedral premises, the Workingmen's Club, the tower of the tower. At this period the British forces, had been removed from the premises, a large number of engagements were reported amongst the British forces. The British forces were still in the city. Invading forces were observed at St Canice's Cathedral premises, the Workingmen's Club, the tower of the tower. At this period the British forces, had been removed from the premises, a large number of engagements were reported amongst the British forces.

"Later in the eve