

the ambition of us all. A holiday should be regarded as a preparation for work, or rather for its resumption. In view of the great attractions as a tourist resort that Ireland offers, it may not be an easy matter to make up one's mind right off as to where to go, or what is best for mind or body. But as the writer in the "Irish Cyclist" so truly says—"You may tour Ireland for a lifetime, but you will never find it commonplace."

CITY HOUSING PLANS APPROVED.

At the meeting of the Corporation Public Health Committee last night, Mr T Bourke presiding, a letter was read from the Ministry for Local Government approving of the plans and specifications and sites selected for the building forthwith of eighteen houses, under the scheme of sixty three houses to be erected in the City. The sites of the eighteen houses are in Church street, Nicholes street, John street and Mary street

SUDDEN DEATH.

Timothy McNamara, a farmer, living at Donoughmore, died suddenly yesterday morning. He was unmarried, and was out about his work as usual on Tuesday. He lived with his brother, and was held in the highest respect by the residents of Donoughmore, who greatly deplore his unexpected demise.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

The annual meeting of the Limerick County Council will take place on Monday next, at 12 o'clock, to elect a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Committees for the ensuing year. It is understood that the present occupant of the chair, Mr B. Laffan, will be re-elected, and that there will be no contest for the vice-chairmanship.

THE CRESCENT CARNIVAL.

The Crescent Carnival promoted in aid of the Organ Fund of the Church of the Sacred Heart, will take place in the grounds of Boru House, Mulgrave street, on the 29th and 30th instant and the 1st July. A big and varied round of attractions is being organised for the Carnival, the object of which has the approval of the citizens. On the evening of the 29th at 4 o'clock the Fete will be opened by the Mayor (Alderman S M O'Mara), and in addition to an enticing amusement programme. Band Promenades will be held

In London the enthusiasts no bounds.

The King has issued a Queen and he are deeply reception.

INLAND WATER

A Government Notice in the Commission of Inquiry to investigate the work has been reconstituted to question of inland waterways. The original Commission temporary wages agreement Canal Company and the General Workers' Union nominees of particular interest chairman. It commenced 11th April and heard views from the General Managers Company, but was unsuccessful sequence of the unwilling interests represented on accept the limitations imposed by the nature of the period for its completion agreement,

Realising the importance the earliest investigation waterways in the matter authorities immediately inquiry on their own initiative scope to waterways in general

It is understood that the mission will now consist M.I.E.E., A.M.I.C.E.I., Kelly, B Com, M.S., E.C.C. M.A., B.A.I., M.I.C.E.I., B.A.I., M.I.C.E.I., County Riding of Tipperary; a Town Clerk, Dublin; and Secretary.

ATHLETIC REVIVAL

Under the auspices and Cycling Association the Gaelic League Hall of reviving athletics county, and the formation clubs, with a view to their promoted.

The following were appointed to promote the object in Moloney, C.C. St Mungamore, Chairman Co B. Quinlan, Secretary; Secretary; Commandant Kilmallock; P Galb. Ballingarry; Rev S C Fitzgerald, Dr J Newcastle West; T Lee, Castleconnell; V McInerney, Limerick