FUNERAL OF MRS. T. MACNAMARA.

The funeral of Mrs. T. MacNamara, Shelbourne Terrace, Thomondgate, whose premature demise is deeply regretted, took place from St. Munchin's Parish Church on Monday to Mount St. Lawrence. Mass for the eternal repose of her soul was celebrated at 9 o'clock. The deceased, who had been a school teacher prior to her marriage, having been educated at the Training College of Mary Immaculate, Limerick, had made hosts of friends during her comparatively short life, and the concourse of people which followed the remains to their last resting place could only be regarded as a tribute of high esteem to her memory, and of sympathy with her bereaved husband and relatives.

The clergy present were—Very Rev. D. Canon O'Driscoll, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's; Rev. Father Moloney, C.C. do.; Rev. Father Halpin, C.C. do.

The chief mourners were—Thos. MacNamara [husband] John, Harry, Denis, and Paul Molnerney [brothers] John and Henry Winter [uncle] James MacNamara [brother-in-law], John, Andrew, and James Kennedy, James Lane [Fir Hill] Michael, Gerard, and Joseph Lane, John and James MacNamara, Michael, Pat, Edward, and Thos. Molnerney, F. Dier, Michael and John Foley (Donnan), Harry Costello (Manister), Michael and James O'Connell (Tom), James O'Donnell (Calediff), John O'Connell (Patton) (A.L.V.S.)
