

of firearms, but it was 11th that the climax
of a Free State soldier
the city, while on his shot dead in Nelson-
ate O'Connell, having
as previously. From truce vanished, and
ing positions or plants
mandeered, factories
iness houses, private
stitutions—even the
escape occupation for
in points it was not
it during the hail of
intervals for ten days
e more venturesome
nlet. A percentage
penalty of their inscipita's narrates. As er, it was from the
the casualty toll
the docks the
so along Roche's
street, Mallow street,
l street, and Henry
of the city was in
and no person could
ining the risk of being
firing for the greater
this way many were
ere people free from
ay bullets found their
l this is shown by the
while in the grounds
Mary Immaculate,
ounded in the early

was a stern factor in
was becoming daily
at the poor, but this
y the intrepidity of
ook all the risks of
ing deliveries from
hostilities there was
women and children
ere looked after with
at Mungret College,
ices.
ing the City Fire
n, carried out their
o the hospitals with
mpting to extinguish
O'Halloran's drapery
, two were wounded,

Home and Hospital.

The Post Office.

There is naturally a big accumulation of mails in the Post Office after an interval of ten or eleven days, during which there was no delivery. This morning a special staff was brought on, and a delivery of letters and papers was made. Army and old age pensions were paid at the Post Office during the day, but beyond this business was suspended. Telegraphic communication is completely dislocated.

The City To-day.

Beyond grocery and provision establishments, etc, there were comparatively few houses open in the city to-day. Quite a listless air seemed to pervade everything.

Train Service.

The train service to and from Limerick is still suspended.

LIMERICK MAN SHOT DEAD NEAR BRUFF.

While driving in the direction of Bruff with two friends during the week William Dunworth, a buyer at Messrs Todd & Co, Ltd, was shot dead. The car got into the line of fire in an engagement between Free State troops and Irregulars, with the result that Mr Dunworth was mortally wounded.

FUNERAL OF MR EDWARD WALLACE.

The funeral of Mr Edward Wallace, aged 62 years, who was shot dead at the corner of Roche's street on Thursday, 21st instant, took place last evening from St John's Cathedral, where the remains lay over night, to St Patrick's burial ground. The chief mourners were—Mrs B Wallace (widow), William Wallace (son), Dan Wallace (brother), Mrs Sheehan (sister), M W Wallace, W P Wallace, and James Sheehan (nephews). The funeral was large and representative, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held, and the sympathy which is expressed with his relatives.

Mr Keuben Robinson, with Thos Davis, and Thos Dowling, on board reached the Bar Rock buoy, which was filled with water and immediately a number of small boats rescued, and picked up three of the fated Hope. The fourth, George, drowned before the rescue party scene of the disaster. The doctor, Wright, and one of Mr G Davis's principal boot shop in Cobh.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

At the half-yearly meeting of the Council, Commandant-General Moran, presiding,

A letter was read from the L Department of Dail Breann, with the Council's resolution asking the Department for a scheme of education for young children. It points to Hegan, of the Education Department, to put before the Council receiving consideration at present take any action.

The Secretary stated the Council meeting adopted a resolution various District Councils to put the compulsory clauses of the Education Act read the decisions conveyed from Councils on the subject. Corofin decided to adjourn it for six months. District Council approved of putting operation. Scariff District Council objection to its enforcement, and Council adopted the resolution. That there being now a letter from Education, no action could be taken at present.

It was decided to defer action enforcement of the compulsory clauses.

PERFORMING ANIMALS.

A Bill proposing to give effect to recommendations of the Select Committee on Performing Animals has been introduced in the Commons by Mr Alfred Davies, a Liberal. It seeks to establish a committee to report on the protection of performing animals, with regard to the exhibition of animals where they consider there is a risk of injury to the animals.

The Bill also puts a prohibition on the exhibition of captive birds.